$195 Million

Bond Issues Get Chicagoans' OK

CHICAGO (AP)—Bond issues totaling $195 million have been approved by Chicago voters, ending a noisy battle.

They will provide $20 million for alley and street lighting; $46 million for sewers; $50 million for neighborhood redevelopment; $28 million for public transportation; $15 million for garbage disposal; $36 million for fire, police and health department improvements.

The bonds were Mayor Richard J. Daley's sextuplets. He put on an all-out drive for them, probably remembering a got-trampled under a taxpayer uprising in 1962.

But the lines of battle soon became confused.

Such top Republicans as State Treasurer William J. Scott and Charles H. Percy were for the bonds. But 30 of the 50 Republican ward committeemen were against them.

The Chicago Real Estate Board, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People joined Roman Catholic Archbishop John Patrick Cody on the pro side.

They faced opposition by a homeowners' group, the Property Owners Coordinating Council, and such civil rights groups as CORE and the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations.

ANDERSON, Ind. (AP)—The Rev. and Mrs. P. Edgar Williams, Bentonville, Ill., will be commissioned Wednesday night as missionaries to Kenya, East Africa.

"Highball" originally meant a ball raised as a signal for railroad trains to go ahead or speed up.

'Couldn't Believe Eyes' As Cow Sank From Sight

By FRANK CRAWFORD
KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—It all began when Mrs. Bennie C. Stewart looked out the window and saw her cow disappear right into earth.

"That was Jan. 3, last year. 'I couldn't believe my eyes,' said Mrs. Stewart. 'Our cow was sinking like she was going down in an elevator. She went down about 12 feet and we had to destroy her.'"

Eighteen days later the earth opened up beneath the modest home she and her blind husband occupied and broke it in two. They moved away.

Since then, five other houses have broken apart or plummeted into an abandoned limestone mine that runs beneath an irregular area approximately three-fourths mile long. It is perhaps half a mile wide in some places in the pleasant, modest suburban area at the southwest outskirts of Kansas City, Kan.

The latest disappearing act was Monday night. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Monty Flack plunged into a 90-foot hole and was swallowed up. The Flacks had moved out earlier when their garage fell into the abyss.

Others moved too, although their houses were unscathed. Large sunken areas in a field across the street, the fissures in their driveway and another deep hole in the Flack yard are enough for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Crookham who live next door west. Mrs. Crookham and her son, David, 17, were at their home Tuesday, taking up some carpentering.

"We left the next day after the garage tumbled down," she said. "We have rented a house elsewhere."

Sheriff Harry Higgins lives in the next house. He has moved out most of his more valuable furnishings.

Only two families still are in the block along Gibbs Road. Why did they build there?

"My father, who lived just the other side of Flacks, bought all these lots 12 years ago," said Mrs. Crookham. "We knew the quarry was under us but it says right in our contract of sale that it was adequately supported by big pillars and there would be no sinkage."

The pillars at the entrance in a side of a hill south of the Kaw River look substantial. They are about 12 feet square, hewn from solid rock.

There have been some 30 lawsuits filed against the city, where the earlier cave-ins were, and against a construction company. Now perhaps Wyandotte County will become a defendant. The latest cave-ins are just beyond the city limits.

The construction company denies ownership of the mine. The rock crushing company that started and operated the mine has been dissolved.

Johnson told a conference at the White House the countdown has started — that in 15 days the country embarks on the greatest contribution to the well-being of older citizens since Social Security began 30 years ago.

He said there will be problems.

He listed the one of compliance with the civil rights law that denies federal funds for any activity involving discrimination because of race, religion or origin.

"We believe the answer to that problem is a simple one," Johnson said, "and we ask every citizen to obey the law."

More than 80 per cent of the country's hospitals, he said, have given assurances they will do so. This would be about 6,000 out of a total of 7,500.

The President 3rd grade 104 The President called the one-day conference of administration officials and 300 officers of national and state medical and hospital associations to review the almost-completed plans for the universal health insurance system.

Secretary of Welfare John W. Gardner was expected to announce at the conference the latest tally on how many of the country's approximately 7,500 general hospitals have enrolled in medicare and met the test of compliance with the Civil Rights Act.

The secretary said last week that 5,511 had met the no-racial-discrimination rule so far. He predicted that virtually all the others would be in compliance by July 1.

But officials are concerned that hospitals and physicians set up workable procedures to insure that patients do not occupy hospital beds after they could be discharged, or after they have recovered to the point at which visiting-nurse or nursing-home care would suffice.

The administration also hopes to enlist the help of hospitals and medical groups in making sure that elderly citizens understand that medicare is only for the sick — that patients will be admitted to hospitals only upon the decision of doctors, and that medicare may not be used for rest or custodial care.

Even greater vigilance will be needed, some officials predicted, after nursing-home care is added to the benefits next Jan. 1.

Percy Outpolled By Douglas In Curtain-Raiser

CHICAGO (AP) — Republican Charles H. Percy was outpolled by Sen. Paul H. Douglas in Tuesday's curtain-raiser for their showdown fight in November — but the GOP hopeful sees no omen in the results.

"Checking the returns from past elections, it can be seen there is no correspondence between primary returns and results in November," Percy said.

He pointed out that Democrat Sidney Yates outpolled U.S. Senator Everett M. Dirksen in the 1962 primary but lost decisively to Dirksen in the election that year.

Percy, 46, a former student of Douglas' at the University of Chicago, breezed past taken opposition to win the Republican senatorial nomination.

Returns from 9,090 of the state's 10,732 precincts gave Percy 469,139 votes to 31,974 for Howard J. Doyle, Chicago tavern operator. Lar Daly, who perennially campaigns for public office in an Uncle Sam suit, ran third and last with 20,715 votes.

Douglas, unopposed, received 572,992 vote from 7,019 precincts reporting.

194 Striking Teachers Fired In Detroit Area

DETROIT (AP) — The suburban Ecorse School Board fired 194 teachers Tuesday night who have been on strike since June 3 in a dispute over a new contract.

"The employment of all teachers of this school district is hereby terminated," said Supt. Ralph E. Brandt.

The district schools, with some 4,000 pupils, were closed by a walkout of members of the AFL-CIO Ecorse Federation of Teachers.

The board has refused to negotiate with the teachers while they are on strike. Teachers voted Monday not to return without a new contract.

Brandt said baccalaureate and other regular procedures, with the exception of final examinations, will continue at Ecorse schools.

"The administrative staff will take the records and evaluate them and the children will be graded on the records they show," he said.

Teachers, who now receive a starting salary of $5,400 have been asking $6,100. The board has offered $5,750.

Fight Sea Of Flames In Wilds

By HOWARD C. HEYN
SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — A California condor, soaring high above the coastal mountains, could view this scene today:

Endless miles of rocky, brush-coated ridges, studded with mile-high peaks and slashed by deep ravines, all of it simmering under a searing sun.

Cut off from the 20th century by lack of roads, it is a wilderness of isolated grandeur, haunt of deer, black bear, puma — and the vanishing condor.

In its heart is an undulating sea of flames.

A plane crash last Saturday set this scene. Two died in the crash. Within moments fire flashed across the rugged, almost inaccessible slopes of the San Raphael Mountains northwest of this scenic resort on the Pacific.

For firemen this is a job as tough as they come. One veteran forester called it one of the worst spots to fight a blaze which, in the first four days, swept across 60,000 acres.

More days—crew bosses won't estimate how many—lie ahead before containment can be expected.

The battle is raging in the center of the San Raphael wild area, so designated because there are no roads. This lack of access is not a fire prevention measure but a government restriction designed to preserve the precipitous mountain terrain in its natural state.

BELLWOOD PLANS CELEBRATION FOR CERNAN SATURDAY

BELLWOOD, Ill. (AP) — Astronaut Eugene A. Cernan will return to Bellwood, his home town Saturday, June 25 for a weekend of celebration and reunions, village officials have announced.

Cernan's visit was announced Tuesday by Sigel C. Davis, village president, who said he received confirmation of the trip from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

NASA said it did not appear that Lt. Col. Thomas Stafford will accompany Cernan in the visit. Stafford was command pilot of Gemini 9 on a space flight earlier this month.

One of the highlights of the space voyage was a space walk by Cernan which lasted 125 minutes and covered 36,000 miles in space.

Cernan was to arrive at Chicago's O'Hare International Airport and be greeted by Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago, Davis and other officials. A motorcade through Bellwood was to follow.

"By the time the clergyman is ready to speak...his congregation will have been informed through mass communication and will already have made up their minds," he said.

Dr. Parker, director of the denomination's National Communications office, said the church must make increasing use of television, radio and motion pictures "to make the power of its faith felt outside its 'sectarian fellowship.'"

Another speaker, the Rev. Harold H. Wilke of New York City, director of the denomination's council for church and ministry, said the church must strengthen local parishes as it "initiates new ministries to deal with today's problems."

He said ministers must go to troubled people in factories, shopping centers, offices and night clubs if it is to reach persons outside the church.

S. Carolina Rejects Bid Of Incumbent

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

South Carolina voters overwhelmingly rejected incumbent Democratic Sen. Donald S. Russell in Tuesday's primary balloting in favor of former Gov. Ernest F. (Fritz) Hollings. But incumbent Illinois Democrats won renomination in the nation's other primary.

Both Senate seats were up for renomination in South Carolina. Besides the Russell-Hollings race, Democratic State Sen. Bradley Morrah won a landslide victory over attorney John Bolt Culbertson, who ran as a pro-civil rights candidate.

Hollings will face State Sen. Marshall Parker, who switched from the Democratic party to the GOP earlier this year, in the November election. At stake is the two-year unexpired term of Sen. Olin D. Johnston, D-S.C., who died last year. Russell was named to replace Johnston.

Morrah will take on incumbent Republican Sen. Strom Thurmond this fall for a full six-year term.

Tuesday's balloting for Hollings and Morrah was not limited to Democrats, since voters are not registered by party in South Carolina.

Pictures Church Forced To Move Into Busy World

DE KALB, Ill. (AP) — The picture of a church forced to move from the calm of the pulpit to the clamor of the outside world was painted Tuesday at the annual meeting of the Illinois Conference of the United Church of Christ.

The preacher is no longer an important source of ideas and information to his congregation, said the Rev. Everett C. Parker of New York City.

"By the time the clergyman is ready to speak...his congregation will have been informed through mass communication and will already have made up their minds," he said.

Dr. Parker, director of the denomination's National Communications office, said the church must make increasing use of television, radio and motion pictures "to make the power of its faith felt outside its 'sectarian fellowship.'"

'Soldiers Of Free America: Never Shall We Forget You'

By LEON DENNEN
Foreign News Analyst
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK (NEA) — Who wrote these historic words?
"Soldiers of free America: Having accomplished your task and won the victory, you are leaving the soil of Europe."
"Never shall we forget you. We fought together, suffered together and triumphed together. It is hand-in-hand that our two countries march toward the future. Long live the American Army.
Long live the United States of America."

Thus wrote Gen. Charles de Gaulle — in his own hand as usual — on Nov. 6, 1945, after France was liberated from the Nazis.

The full text of his message was printed recently in the journal, "Today in France," by Benjamin Protter, noted American authority on French affairs. Does the general, now president of France, remember it as he now conspires with the Russians — whose pact with Hitler unleashed World War II — against the United States and NATO?

Alas, ambitious politicians — or statesmen with a mania of grandeur, if you please — have notoriously short memories when it suits their purposes and De Gaulle is a conspicuous example of this truism.

"Never shall we forget you," he told the GIs in the hour of victory.
But De Gaulle's "never" — like the comic line in Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta, "H.M.S. Pinafore" — has already become "well, hardly ever."

He certainly forgot the "Soldiers of free America" when his government recently refused permission to hold services in memory of Lawrence Kelly at the Invalides, one of Paris' military shrines.

Kelly was the first American GI killed by the Nazis at the liberation of Paris. Since the end of World War II services in his memory had been held annually at the Invalides as an expression of French gratitude toward all Americans who fought and died so that France could be free again.

This year, as De Gaulle was preparing for his pilgrimage to Moscow, he found it inconvenient to remind his countrymen of America's role in the liberation of France. He therefore decided to ban the Kelly memorial service at the Invalides, ostensibly because it was just an "ordinary private demonstration."

As usual, the 76-year-old president acted on his own without approval of the French national assembly. But this time his deliberate insult to the United States shocked the French.

Among the thousands who protested against De Gaulle's
"astonishing and shocking" decision was well-known journalist Raymond Dronne. He led the first platoon of Free French soldiers into Paris in August, 1944, when the fight for the French capital was still at its height.

The ban on the Kelly memorial service, Dronne wrote, was in accordance with De Gaulle's fundamental character — "his old resentment against President Roosevelt; his ingratitude and insatiable appetite for revenge pushed to the smallest detail."

Dronne reminded De Gaulle that in 1944-45 "France was liberated thanks to the formidable American power, by the combined Anglo-American forces" and that French veterans of the Liberation were "clothed, equipped, armed and supplied by the Americans."

This De Gaulle now wants to forget. Perhaps there is no longer any point in arguing with the old man. The best thing, as President Johnson suggested, is to agree to De Gaulle's wish and remove all NATO institutions from France.

His policies are personal and he has no successor on the French political horizon. In the long run, France is bound to return to NATO and an integrated Western alliance.

France may be eternal. It's president obviously is not.

High Court Drafts New Criminal Contempt Rules

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP) — For years, some of the Supreme Court justices have felt uneasy about the broad power of federal judges to hand down stiff sentences for criminal contempt.

Finally, this week, they were able to form a majority of sorts.
As a result, new limits have been placed on this power and the court is inching toward the view that those accused of criminal contempt are entitled to the same kind of safeguards given defendants in other criminal proceedings.

Broadly speaking, criminal contempt involves interference with a court order or ruling — backing the authority of the court, in other words. It has been used to jail mobsters who disobeyed a judge's order to testify before a grand jury even though they were given immunity from prosecution, violators of civil rights orders, and union officials who defied court injunctions.

Under the Constitution, "the trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment shall be by jury." In 1789, two years after the Constitution was adopted, the Judiciary Act gave the federal courts power to "punish by fine or imprisonment all contempt of authority."

Through the years the Supreme Court has held that these prosecutions are not subject to the jury requirements of the Constitution.

But this has not set easily with all the justices. In 1958, while a court majority sustained criminal contempt convictions stemming from the Smith Act, Chief Justice Earl Warren and Justices Hugo L. Black and William
O. Douglas labeled the precedents "wholly wrong" and said the extraordinary power of judges to impose punishment for criminal contempt "stands as an anomaly in the law."

The authority, wrote Black in a dissent for the three, "has become a drastic and pervasive mode of administering criminal justice usurping our regular constitutional methods of trying those charged with offenses against society."

In 1964, a court majority held that Ross Barnett, then govern-

NEW YORK (AP)—June 15 is tax day for the nation's corporations. And the bill is a hefty 25 per cent higher than last June 15. One way or another, big and little business firms must fork up more than $8 billion for the U. S. Treasury.

Higher interest rates and a scarcity of money available for borrowing will squeeze many companies.

Many of the largest corporations probably have long since prepared to meet the tax collector. But bankers say some of the smaller firms have been having trouble finding money to borrow.

The bigger tax bite this year than last stems from the U.S. Treasury's new collection rules more than it does from the larger profits on which to pay the levy.

Formerly corporations paid 18 per cent of the year's estimated income tax in the first half of the year. Last March Congress passed a Tax Adjustment Act to boost first-half payments to 24 per cent.

Corporations paid part of last year's remaining income tax March 15, and 12 per cent of this year's estimated tax April 15. Another 12 per cent is due today, along with the final payment for 1965's taxes.

The purpose of the new law was to put corporations on a pay-as-you-go basis by the end of next year—something like the withholding tax on personal paychecks. In the long run corporations' total tax bills remain the same. But getting closer to a pay-as-you-go schedule is putting a special, if temporary, squeeze on corporate treasuries this year.

It's also putting a squeeze on many banks. The demand for loans has been soaring with the big spurt in economic activity. The demand for tax loans is just that much more of a burden to banks hard pressed to find lendable funds.

And some of the funds the banks have built up will be drawn down by the tax deadline. These are the Certificates of Deposit which corporations have bought from the banks, many with the aim of meeting the tax bills. Nearly $4 billion of these CDs come due this month, June 15.

Being Stamped Inferior Has Its Compensations

By HAL BOYLE

YOURVILLE, U.S.A. (AP)—“Wilbur, did you know that you are just a crippled female?” said Trellis Mae Peeble, America's most average housewife. “Says who?” yawned her husband from the sofa.

“Says Dr. Marvyn Jeffreys of South Africa—that's who,” replied Trellis Mae.

“Who he?” asked Wilbur. “He's a 78-year-old anthropologist. It says right here in the newspaper that he believes men are crippled females and naturally inferior to women.”

“In what way?” inquired Wilbur, his male pride aroused.

“Well, he says men don't live as long as women, commit more suicides, and have to go to the booby hatch more often. He says that women are even 13 times safer than men at driving.”

“He must be talking about driving ox carts, not automobiles,” mumbled Wilbur.

“Dr. Jeffreys also says women are more intelligent than men because their brains are larger in proportion to their body weight,” continued Trellis Mae inexorably.

“Let me see that newspaper,” said Wilbur.

Wilbur frowned as he began to read the article. But as he read on the frown relaxed. A smile took its place.

“Hey, you know, this guy's got something at that,” he announced, handing her back the paper.

“Well, honey, when you buy an insurance policy be sure and read all the fine print,” said Wilbur loftily. “You didn't finish what Dr. Jeffreys had to say.” “Like what?”

“Well, he says that since women are mentally abler and physically more durable than men they ought to take better care of men.”

“In what way?” “Well, wives ought to mow the lawn. And wash the family car.”

“And do all the heavy work around the house—such as moving the furniture—so their husbands won't get a hernia.”

“The good doctor suggests that because of their relative feebleness, men should retire at 60 but that women could well go on working until they're 70. Now, what do you think of that?”

“I think we ought to drop the whole subject at this point,” said his wife defensively. “I should have known you men always wind up sticking together. Let's watch television.”

“Go get me a beer first, I'm thirsty,” said Wilbur, leaning back on the sofa cushions.

“Go get it yourself.” “I can't. That poor old crippled female you're wedded to is just too tired.”

“Well, I'll get it just this once—if you promise not to use that silly phrase again the rest of your life,” said Trellis Mae.

As Trellis Mae padded out to the kitchen to get the beer, Wilbur felt he had earned the first clear-cut victory since his marriage.

Church Group Sponsoring 'Contemporary' Film Series

The Christian Education committee of the Greater Jacksonville Council of Churches announces its sponsorship of a new venture in Christian education: "Dialogue With the World." This program, which helps bridge the gap between church and community, consists of the showing of specially selected secular motion pictures followed by a period of directed depth discussion. The purpose is to present real life situations that form the basis for meaningful discussions of man's personal, family and community problems. The educational function of the church is faced with two central tasks: to translate the traditional message of the New Testament into terms understood by contemporary people and second to help its people see how and where the traditional symbols of the faith—sin, grace, death, forgiveness, etc.—come alive in the common occurrences of everyday life.

In recent years the motion picture industry has produced many "intimate" films concerned with portraying life "as it is" that can have particular value to the contemporary church. Seventy of these have been selected by Films, Inc., for use in ten significant discussion categories, such as Prejudice, Sex and Marriage, Confrontation with the Truth, Justice and Mercy, etc.

With this purpose in mind, the Christian Education Committee will present one of these films, "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" at Grace Methodist church Tuesday evening, June 21 at 7:30. After viewing the film, the audience will be divided into small groups to discuss with qualified leaders the issues presented.

The public is welcome to attend.

The United Christian Youth Fellowship will attend in preparation for its "Values for Teen-Agers" series.

There will be no admission charge, but a free-will offering will be taken to cover film rental.

Members of the C.E. committee are: Reverend Robert McClelland, chairman; Mrs. John Atkins, Mrs. G. C. Albright, Mrs. Lawrence Crawford, Mrs. Janet DeOnellas, Mrs. Dola Robinson and Reverend Donald Zumwalt.

MARRIAGE LICENSE GRANTED IN GREENE

Rivalry is a way of life among the village headmen of the East African Anuak tribe. The chiefs are so insecure that they spend frequent nights prowling about to eavesdrop for plots against them.

Sheriff's Race Tops Republican Interest, White Easy Winner

Republican Dean Colwell swept the nomination for sheriff of Morgan county in Tuesday's Primary Election over challenger Clifford Smith. Colwell polled a total of 2685 votes and Smith received 525.

The Republican race for the sheriff nomination highlighted what most observers conceded was somewhat of a lifeless campaign.

The second most interesting race, due mainly to the heavy advertising campaigns, was the race for the Democratic nomination for state senator between D. J. (Jerry) White and Billie M. Cox, both of Springfield. The 49th senatorial district includes both Morgan and Sangamon counties.

In Morgan county, as well as Springfield, White was an easy winner, polling a total of 1548 votes compared to 806 for Cox.

A Republican party battle and election to the office of state central committee for the 20th Congressional District was captured by Don Adams of Springfield over Quincy's Mayor Wes Olson. Adams polled 1847 votes in Morgan county and Olson received 1131.

Approximately 25 percent of the registered voters of Morgan county turned out Tuesday to cast their ballots. County Clerk Louise Coop reported that a total of 19,588 voters were eligible for Tuesday's primary election.

In 1964, about 7,500 Morgan county voters cast ballots and in 1962, 8,000 voters made their choices known to party officials. The 1966 campaign was handled in like fashion on both sides of the political fence. Both Republicans and Democrats slated candidates for the entire ballot with rare exceptions. The exceptions included the three major contests, two on the Republican side and one on the Democratic side. A fourth contest, for state representative, 50th District, on the Democratic side will be decided on a district-wide basis. The three candidates were: Carl H. Wittmond of Brussels, Elmo "Mac" McClain of Quincy, and Henry D. Sullivan of Quincy. The Morgan county vote was: Wittmond 3540%; McClain 1850; and Sullivan 919.

Unofficial totals for the Democratic cratic slate of officers: For U.S. Senator, Paul H. Douglas, 2178; for state treasurer, Adlai E. Stevenson, III, 2127; for superintendent of public instruction, Donald M. Prince, 2143. For representative in congress, Richard R. Wolfe, 2133. For state central committee, Leo Fitzgerald, 2132. For state senator, D. J. (Jerry) White, 1548; Billie M. Cox, 806.

For representative in the general assembly, Carl H. Wittmond 3540%; Elmo "Mac" McClain, 1850; Henry D. Sullivan, 919. County officers: Jean D. Henley for county clerk, 2130; Alfred H. Hodgson for treasurer, 2109; John F. (Jack) Lonergan for sheriff, 2187; for county superintendent of schools, Paul A. Keller, 2172; for county commissioner, Don McNamara, 2176; for representative committee, John M. Clark, 2021.

A complete list of precinct committeemen elected for both parties will be published as soon as the official canvass has been compiled. County Clerk Louise Coop said the official canvass will be conducted Thursday with officials of both parties cooperating in the tally.

No Nobel Prize awards were given from 1940 through 1942.

CARROLLTON LIONS INSTALL OFFICERS

CARROLLTON — Richard Giller was installed as president of the Carrollton Lions Club Tuesday evening at the annual chicken and fish fry supper of the Club held at Robin Hood.

Other officers installed were Arnold Hyde, first vice president; Francis Geers, second vice president; Neil Carrio, third vice president; Joe Goedey, treasurer; and Clarence Horn secretary.

Ray Hipkins and Ray H. Roll were installed as directors for a one year term and David Becker and Gilbert Jeffrey were installed for a two year period.

The installing officer was Denby Boring of Carlinville, who is postmaster there at the present time, a former mayor of the city of Carlinville and a former county clerk.

Plans were made Tuesday evening for the money to be used in financing a part of the Summer Recreation Program for the children and youth of Carrollton which will begin this month.

paratroopers wrote off the enemy force of 1,400 to 2,000 men as an effective fighting force.

But 400 South Vietnamese infantrymen overcame strong enemy resistance in a surprise dawn attack on a Viet Cong base two miles from the Cambodian frontier west of Saigon. They killed 11 Communists, captured three and a large stock of ammunition, and forced the Viet Cong to flee, a government spokesman said.

The third consecutive day of rioting in Saigon after a two-week political truce was on a small scale, and the troops and police quickly broke up the demonstrations. They arrested two truckloads of antigovernment medical students in a free-swinging melee in which they also roughed up three foreign newsmen and injured one of them, an Australian.

nominations for seats in the state legislature.

Mayor Daley spearheaded a massive campaign to win support for his $195 million municipal bond issue. A similar $66 million bond issue was defeated in 1962 and some observers interpreted the result as a warning of Daley's leadership prowess.

The Chicago Association of Commerce, some civil rights groups, Roman Catholic Arch-bishop John Patrick Cody and Charles H. Percy — among others — gave the bond issues support.

Opposition came from other civil rights organizations, the Property Owners Coordinating Council and a majority of the Republican ward committeemen. They contended the plans were vague, taxes might be increased, schools should have priority on such cash and Negro areas might be uprooted.

Daley said President Johnson telephoned him congratulations on the bond victory. The President, during the 1964 campaign, described Daley as "the greatest political leader in the nation."

Dawson, an 11-term veteran in the 1st District, polled more votes than the combined total of his two opponents, both also Negroes.

One, Fred Hubbard, 36-year-old social worker, was the spearhead of Negro hopes to build political power outside the Daley organization. The other, Ronald L. Williams, an attorney, did not campaign actively.

O'Hara faced stiff opposition in the 2nd District from 40-year-old Abner Mikva, an independent-minded state representative whose views frequently collided with Daley's position.

Returns from 7,080 of the state's 10,732 precincts gave Percy 332,280 votes to 23,573 for Howard J. Doyle, Chicago tavern operator. Lar Daly, who has campaigned for many offices in an Uncle Sam suit, was in third place with 15,766.

Douglas, who once was Percy's economics teacher at the University of Chicago, polled 482,548 votes in returns from 5,725 precincts.

"Checking the returns from past elections, it can be seen there is no correspondence between primary returns and results in November," Percy said in commenting on the returns.

He pointed out that Democrat Sidney Yates outpolled Sen. Everett M. Dirksen in the 1962 primary but lost to Dirksen that November.

Page, seeking a second term as superintendent of public instruction, will be faced in November by Donald Prince, 40, director of the Center for Educational Administration at Illinois State University, Normal. Prince was unopposed in his try for nomination to public office.

Stevenson will be opposed in the November state treasurer contest by Harris, Rowe, 42, Jacksonville attorney and insurance man and Morgan County Republican chairman. Rowe has served three terms in the Illinois House.

Returns from 6,885 precincts gave Page 242,259 votes to 81,564 for Campbell.

In the Chicago contests for Democratic nominations for legislative seats, Alderman Charles Chew, Negro civil rights activist, defeated Russell R. De Bow, Negro aide to Mayor Daley, in the 29th senatorial district.

Richard Newhouse, a Negro defeated Sen. Nathan J. Kinnally, an organization entrant, in the 24th senatorial district.

Sen. Bernard Neistein, an organization candidate, won re-nomination over Robert L. Green Sr., a Negro, in the 21st senatorial district.

Two organization candidates defeated Arnold Sirk, an independent, in the 30th House district. The nominees are incumbents Henry M. Lenard and Nick Svalina.

Mrs. Marjorie Peboworth, former president of the League of Women Voters in Illinois, led in her bid for Republican nomination in the 6th House district. The GOP leadership in the south suburban district had tried to remove her.

and William W. Seranton of Pennsylvania, took themselves out of presidential consideration for all time, or so they said.

The only other Republicans who now look like the most likely prospects — Michigan's Gov. George Romney and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon — aren't talking about it.

At the moment Romney is trying to get re-elected governor and Nixon isn't saying what his hopes are. He just keeps on making speeches and keeping himself in the public eye.

Johnson, who made a stunning record getting his "Great Society" programs through Congress in 1965, looks a bit bogged down in 1966.

Congress isn't responding as it used to. With a couple of exceptions — the minimum wage and food for freedom bills — neither house has tackled the major social and economic legislation Johnson asked this year.

LBJ Medics

homes merely for custodial care or because of chronic conditions needing minimal treatment are not qualified for nursing-home benefits. The Medicare law requires that three days of hospitalization precede transfer to a nursing home.

But hospitals report many physicians already have been asked to arrange three days of hospitalization for elderly occupants of nursing homes so that Medicare will pick up much of the bill for the next 100 days of nursing home care.

The government hopes also for vigorous efforts by doctors and hospitals to disseminate information on what Medicare does not provide, as well as what it does.

They suspect many elderly patients will be shocked and angry when they get a bill for the first $40 of their hospital bill — the so-called deductible required by law — and for the $10 a day which must be paid by the patient after his first 60 days in the hospital.

Car Sales Down

DETROIT (AP) — New car sales in early June ran behind the 1965 pace with only General Motors topping its sales mark of a year ago.

Preliminary sales reports from the four U.S. auto makers Tuesday listed sales of 239,214 cars in the June 1-10 period. This trailed both the 251,477 cars sold in the comparable period last year and the 256,489 sold in the final 10 days of May.

It marked the fourth straight 10-day period in which industry sales trailed those of a year ago.

On a calendar year basis to date, however, sales continued to run well ahead of the 1965 pace.

Strongest General Motors had the strongest sales report as its sales of 135,965 cars was a new high for the early June period. The old GM mark of 134,157 cars was set last year.

GM vice president H. E. Crawford said, "We are encouraged by the present trend of sales. While the figures for the current 10 days represent a completion of sales campaigns at Buick and Oldsmobile, we are gratified by the steady improvement in relation to last year's experience since the low point in the first period of May."

Chevrolet, which trailed Ford Division by about 10,000 cars last month, regained its sales lead in a hurry this time. It reported 60,655 passenger car sales in the opening 10 days of June while Ford notched 50,325 sales.

Chrysler Corp. listed sales of 35,766 cars in the 10-day period compared with 43,924 for the comparable 10 days last year. Both Chrysler - Plymouth and Dodge divisions pointed out they had sales contests going at this time last year which added extra incentive to dealer efforts to sell cars.

Ford Motor Co. listed 59,913 car sales compared with 65,582 a year ago. Lincoln-Mercury Division had 9,588 sales, just about 100 ahead of last year's sales effort, but Ford Division was off.

American Motors sold 7,570 cars compared with 7,814 in the June 1-10, 1965, period.

Pre-School Work In Chicago Will Be U. S. Largest

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Committee on Urban Opportunity has announced a project for disadvantaged children which it says will be the largest federally financed pre-school program in the nation.

The project, divided into two programs, will handle 30,800 children, the CCUO said Tuesday.

The summer program will handle 23,800 children and a full year project operated simultaneously will provide services for 7,000 children.

Officials said the summer program will cost $4 million and the one-year project will cost more than $3.5 million. The CCUO says it has asked the U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity for $10 million to cover projects.

The summer program will send children to sessions at 600 public and parochial schools located in poverty areas. It is designed for children in poverty areas who will start school next fall.

Ninety per cent of the children must come from families in which income is below the national poverty level of $3,000 a year for a family of four.

The major part of Project Head Start will be handled by the Chicago Board of Education. It will send 20,500 children to the summer program and 3,000 to the year-round project. The Roman Catholic archdiocese will handle 2,000 children in the summer program and 1,500 in the year plan.

BEANS CONTINUE ON HIGHER TREND

CHICAGO (AP) — The pattern of grain futures trade resumed today where it closed Tuesday. Old crop soybeans continued their higher trend while the grains again were steady to easier.

July and August soybeans traded again at season high levels on gains of about two cents a bushel. Speculators were good buyers along with commercial accounts.

Favorable weather for harvesting the winter wheat crop for early development of corn and soybeans was a mildly bearish factor elsewhere on the exchange.

Wheat was unchanged to 3/4 cent a bushel lower, July $1.70 3/4; corn unchanged to 1/4 lower, July $1.26 1/4; oats unchanged to 1/4 higher, July 96 cents; rye 1/4 to 1/2 lower, July $1.20 1/4; soybeans unchanged to 2 1/4 higher, July $3.23 1/4.

War Is Taking Chances Especially For A Pal

By TOM TIEDE
LAI KHE, Viet Nam — (NEA) — Capt. Del Fleener was flying an O-1 observation plane when his radio cracked with the information that another pilot had just been shot down in the immediate area.

The captain bit his lip and swallowed. The man who was down was his friend.

Quickly, Fleener banked his single prop plane into a turn toward the crash area. He knew the site well . . . an acre

Fail To Dump 'Blue Ribbon' Woman Solon

CHICAGO (AP) — An attempt by south suburban Republican township leaders to dump a "Blue Ribbon" woman member of the Illinois House backfired in Tuesday's primary election.

Mrs. Marjorie Peboworth of Riverdale, former president of the Illinois League of Women Voters, ran high in the 6th District where six candidates were fighting for the two GOP nominations.

Mrs. Peboworth was elected to the legislature on the "Blue Ribbon" at large slate of 1964 and is now chairman of a committee studying state constitutional revision.

The township party organization became dissatisfied with her and endorsed Ralph A. Beezhold of Oak Lawn and Romie J. Palmer of Blue Island in the primary. Beezhold won the other nomination.

At least five legislators were defeated for re-nomination — Edward H. Jenison, R-Paris; Frank Broucek, D-Chicago; Dean McCully, R-Minook; and Robert V. Walsh, D-Graysville and Francis J. Berry, R-Libertyville.

Reapportionment tossed Walsh into the newly aligned 5th District in company with Reps. Bert Baker, D-Benton, and Harold D. Stedelin, D-Centralia.

The latter two were nominated. W.J. Murphy of Antioch headed a group of five Republicans who made a comeback after being purged by the party two years ago when they were denied a place on the ticket in the at-large voting.

Besides Murphy, they are Peter F. Miller, Walter (Babe) McAvoy, Louis Capuzi and Peter Granata, all of Chicago. Granata had no opposition and is assured of election in November, as is Capuzi.

British Widow Does Nothing But View Movies

LONDON (AP) — Five times a week for the last 10 years, a London woman has gone to the same movie theater, sat in the same seat and watched the movie twice.

"There's really not very much else to do," said Violet Forno, a widow. "Nobody ever visits me, and I hardly know anyone. So you see, it's the films."

She takes an alarm clock with her and sets it for 8:30 p.m.

"I like to get home early," explained Mrs. Forno, "because I like to get up early and get my work done and be fresh for the cinema again."

Two weeks ago, Mrs. Forno's alarm began going wrong. Worried that she might not know the right time, she kept leaving her seat to ask the time of an usher.

So the staff of the movie house gave her a new luminous clock, plus a two-month pass.

"It's the least we could do," said the manager, Frederick Brown. "She's spent a lot of money with us over the years. There's no question about it, she's our best customer."

What pictures does she like best?

"I like most films," she replied, "but I like comedies best. They cheer you up and you don't feel so lonely."

Mrs. Forno is one of Britain's many tragic cases of loneliness. In a report published Tuesday, "Modern Loneliness," author Armand Georges forecast that this country will have 28 million persons suffering from loneliness in the next 20 years.

Numerous organizations try to help with the growing problem of loneliness, but Georges says not enough is done.

He proposes that the government set up a ministry for the aged, day centers equipped with television, rest rooms, reading rooms and cheap meals.

Lady Phillips, secretary of the National Association of Women's Clubs, said the clubs spend many hours trying to help the lonely.

More Foster Homes

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — A state official said Monday there is "an immediate and critical need" for 1,000 foster homes for dependent and neglected children in Illinois.

Dr. Cyril H. Winking, director of the State Department of Children and Family Services, said his department has not been able to recruit and license enough adequate homes to meet the increased demand.

In less than 2 1/2 years, he said, the department's caseload has risen from 4,168 children to 8,810. Couples interested in becoming foster parents should contact the department's nearest district office, Winking said.

People can listen about twice as fast as people can talk.

9 East Asian, Pacific Nations To Form Group

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — Nine East Asian and Pacific nations agreed today to form a new regional association called ASPAC — for cooperation in economic, political and other non-military fields.

Arrangements for the new organization, which will be an informal one without a treaty basis, were worked out today during the second day of the Asian-Pacific conference of foreign ministers.

It brings together South Korea, Japan, Nationalist China, the Philippines, South Vietnam, Thailand, Australia, New Zealand and Malaysia. A 10th country, Laos, attended the talks here as an observer and may join.

Foreign Minister Thanat Khoman of Thailand, who will become chairman of ASPAC because its next meeting will be at Bangkok, said other countries such as India might also come in if they desire.

The new organization is to be announced formally in a communique at the close of the conference Thursday.

ANOTHER GERMAN FIGHTER CRASHES

BONN, Germany (AP) — A weather reconnaissance jet of the West German air force crashed Tuesday and its pilot became the ninth Luftwaffe airman known to die while on flight duty this year.

A Defense Ministry spokesman said the German-built Fiat G91 crashed after disappearing into a bank of clouds near Neidlingen, about 20 miles southeast of Stuttgart. The pilot was killed when the plane hit the ground and exploded.

It was the third jet lost by the Luftwaffe since Monday, when two American-designed F104 Starfighters fell into the shallows off the north coast of The Netherlands.

One pilot died in this accident and another still is missing. Cause of the three crashes remains unknown, the spokesman said.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Profit taking mixed with reinvestment as the stock market kept a slightly higher trend late this afternoon on the heaviest trading of the week.

Here was the picture near the close:

The volume for the day was estimated at 8.7 million shares compared with 7.72 million Tuesday.

The market rose at the start in a continued celebration of the topping of the 900 level in the Dow Jones industrial average. Very soon, however, the market had to weather profit taking. It did so and remained higher on average, but not much higher.

KLM Airlines and Texas Gulf Sulphur rose about 3 each. Gains of about 2 were made by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Johnson & Johnson, Teletype, Admiral and Bausch & Lomb.

Up a point or so were U.S. Rubber, Boeing, United Aircraft, Eastern Kodak, General Electric, Pennsylvania Railroad, Eastern Air Lines, Atlantic Coast Line, Burroughs, Elastic Stop Nut, Sinclair and Texas Instruments.

Losses of about a point were shown by Chrysler, Ford, Sears, Roebuck, Du Pont, Delta Airlines, Sun Oil, Coca Cola and Air Products.

Sperdy Rand, up a fraction, was leading the list on volume. Prices were generally higher in heavy trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Housing Authority Gets Federal Funds To Start Project

Congressman Paul Findley announced Wednesday morning that Jacksonville has received approval of a federal loan increase of $74,365 for construction of 236 low-rent public housing units.

The new figure on the federal loan stands at $3,390,300.

A ten-story high-rise with 180 units designed for the elderly will be built at the corner of South West street and Beecher avenue.

A second group of 40 units will be built between Independence Avenue and Dunlap Street west of North Main, complete with a community center. Design and construction will be the same as the project now under construction on East Walnut.

The additional loan will cover increased development costs. The total loan, including interest, will be repaid by the Morgan County Housing Authority from the proceeds of the sale of its long-term bonds to private investors.

Executive Director William Cole said Wednesday morning that the Buckley Construction Company of Fenton, Missouri, was the low bidder on the project and that a contract would be signed within the next day or so.

Estimated time of construction on the high-rise will be about two years and 400 days on the low-rise project.

Construction is expected to start next week on both projects.

Pike Sheriff Contest Brings Heavy Turnout

PITTSFIELD — The six-man race for the Democratic nomination for sheriff of Pike county brought out a heavy vote in Tuesday's primary election.

The winner was James E. Wade, presently a deputy sheriff. He had his nearest opponent, Kenny Daniels, by more than 250 votes in the complete but unofficial tally from the 35 precincts in the county.

Wade will be opposed in the November election by Paul (Bud) Ellis who won the Republican nomination by defeating Ira J. Dyer 866 to 405.

U. S. Senator Paul H. Douglas headed the Democratic ticket with 2775 votes and Congressman Paul Findley was the high man on the Republican slate with 1168 votes.

Two Republicans and one Democrat were nominated by write-in votes.

Dale Willard, Pittsfield teacher, received 75 write-in votes for county superintendent of schools. R. L. Hart of Pittsfield was elected representative committeeman in the 50th district by 58 write-ins.

Don Adams Elected To Republican Berth

Don Adams of Springfield, successful businessman and precinct committeeman in his home district, scored an impressive win over Quincy's Mayor Wes Olson in Tuesday's Republican Primary election for the post of State Central Committeeman for the 20th District.

Don Adams (R)
State Central Committeeman

Adams rolled up a margin of about five to one in his home county of Sangamon and actually carried eight of the District's 13 counties. The unofficial total for Adams was 19,356 compared with 575 precincts counted. One precinct in Quincy has not been counted. Election officials said the key to the ballot box had been lost during the election and plans were being made to requisition a hack saw before the official canvass late this week.

Adams campaigned actively in the 20th District's 13 counties and Olson relied on his popularity as spokesman for his party in Quincy and as chairman of the Central Illinois Expressway Committee.

Adams will succeed J. David Jones of Springfield who did not seek re-election to the post because he was running for re-election to the General Assembly.

The state central committee serves as the legal governing body of the Illinois Republican Party and is composed of committeemen from each of the state's 24 congressional districts who serve without pay.

Adams was elected Tuesday in contrast with other candidates who were nominated and must now seek election at the general election in November. Adams will have responsibility in assisting district and state candidates win in November.

WATCH PRIMARY RETURNS — Local Republican candidates for county and state offices, (l-r) Dean Colwell for sheriff; Harris Rowe for state treasurer and Tom Rose, for state representative from the 50th district, all of Jacksonville, watch the primary returns come in at the county courthouse Tuesday night. Colwell won over Clifford Smith in the lone county race on either side of the ticket, while Rowe and Rose ran unopposed.

Methodists Vote Boost In Pastors' Pensions

Central Illinois Methodist ministers this year will narrow the dollar gap between themselves and employees of industry and commerce as a result of action by the denomination in Jacksonville at their annual meeting at MacMurray College.

Average annual salary of pastors in the 700 Methodist churches in the year ended May 31 was $7,725, up $425 from the year before, with the prospect of an estimated $300 increase in 1967.

The biggest gain for preachers and their families came in the form of pension boosts and adoption of hospitalization and medical care plan, half of which at least will be funded by local churches which will pay all expenses for retirees.

The hospital plan effective August 1 for active ministers and their families and retirees, widows of ministers and some dependent children, is a Methodist church group medical expense benefit program, to which 85 per cent of parish and administrative clergymen have already joined.

Lay employees in certain categories are also included. Members of the plan will be covered against major expenses in "catastrophe" illness or long-term hospitalization. Benefits of the plan, under study for three years, are comparable to similar programs in effect in industry, commerce, and government.

Pension payments to retired conference ministers will advance from $72 per annuity year to $75. A retiree with 30 years of active service will receive from the conference and from Preachers Aid Society endowment funds $2,250 annually, exclusive of Social Security additions. An estimated 50 per cent of retired ministers are receiving Social Security allotments, according to Dr. Paul Curry, Danville, chairman of the Board of Pensions.

Said Dr. Curry, "No longer is it a matter of survival for the following children: Mildred, wife of James C. Riley, William G. and Robert L., all of Jacksonville; Earl, Jr. of Fort Dodge, Iowa, and Betty Lou, wife of Robert Gerdis, Ormond Beach, Fla. There are four grandsons and five granddaughters.

The following brothers and sisters survive: Lloyd Underbrink, Scotts Bluff, Neb.; William Underbrink, Archie, Mo.; Henry Underbrink, Libertyville; Eula of Ypsilanti, Mich.

Two children preceded him in death: Imogene in infancy, and Gerald who was killed in an accident in 1937.

Mr. Underbrink was a member of the Liberty Baptist church where he had been very active, serving as Sunday School superintendent for many years. He was a graduate of Dixon Business College, Dixon, Ill., and was a railroad agent and operator until his retirement.

The body was taken to the Cody and Son Memorial Home where services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday with Rev. William J. Boston officiating. Burial will be in Diamond Grove Mausoleum.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 10 a.m. Thursday.

WIRE REPORTED STOLEN WEDNESDAY

Car-Truck Crash Kills 2 Area Men

SHELDON GROVE — A head-on truck-car crash took the lives of both drivers one-tenth mile south of here early Wednesday morning.

Pronounced dead on arrival at Culbertson Memorial hospital in Rushville were Dale B. Martin, 37, route two Pittsfield, and Dennis Scott, 20, of rural Frederick. Both drivers were alone at the time of the crash.

State police reported that Martin, operator of a truck owned by C. J. Stillwell of Pittsfield, was north-bound on Ill. 100, when he collided with the south-bound Scott auto.

Early reports indicate that the vehicles met head-on at the center of the highway.

A verdict of accidental death was returned at a 10 a.m. inquest held at the hospital. William H. Phillips, a witness to the crash reported that the truck-trailer broke off immediately after impact, and burst into flames.

Martin reportedly crawled from the cab of his over-turned truck to the road siding, but did not respond when an ambulance arrived at the scene.

DeSherlia, Shines Win Jersey Spots

In Jersey County, with 21 of the larger 21 precincts reporting at ten o'clock, the Democrat nomination for treasurer went to the present office holder Leslie Shines, 1218 over Elmer Heath, 254.

On the Republican ballot, a former deputy sheriff Adam DeSherlia had the edge by 1019 over his nearest opponent Stanley Miller's 224 votes.

On the Republican ballot, Chief Deputy Hargiss Mahol had a 674 count over his nearest foe Richard E. Burrows' 265 votes.

DeSherlia was a former deputy under Howard Perdue, and prior to that appointment served as chief of police in Grafton for 14 years.

Shines, who gained the apparent nomination for treasurer was appointed to succeed Perdue in the office of county treasurer.

Tom Rose Makes Strong Showing In Primary Bid

Freshman campaigner Tom Rose of Jacksonville, Republican candidate for state representative from the 50th district, made a strong showing in his first bid for that office in the Tuesday primary election.

Rose, a Greene county native, although not running against his partner on the ticket, H. B. Ihnen of Quincy, nearly out-pollied the former GOP representative.

Tom Rose
With all but one precinct reporting, the unofficial returns gave Ihnen a 436 vote edge. He totaled 12,722 to Rose's 12,286.

On the Democratic side of the ledger, veteran candidate Carl Wittmond of Brussels and a first term Elmo (Mac) McClain of Quincy led the ticket, edging Henry D. Sullivan of Quincy.

Unofficial totals have Wittmond 19,723; McClain 10,654 and Sullivan 4,309.

Wittmond, slightly injured in an auto accident in Springfield last Thursday, kept close tabs on the race from his bedside in Memorial hospital in the capital city Tuesday night.

The lone precinct not reporting Wednesday morning was in Quincy where a key to one of the ballot boxes was missing. Sources there said the ballot box would be sawed open if the key did not turn up soon.

Rose turned out his best vote in his home county of Morgan where he received 6220 votes to his running mate's 2399.

Ihnen, who lost his House seat to McClain in the "Orange Ballot" two years ago after serving 16 consecutive years, and Rose will oppose Wittmond and McClain in the November 8 general election.

Three representatives will be chosen from the four candidates.

PLAN EAST-WEST EXPRESSWAY MEET IN PIKE JUNE 23

Mayor Byron Holkenbrink said Wednesday that a meeting on the status of the proposed East-West Expressway will be held at the Cardinal Inn, Pittsfield, on June 23rd at 7:30 P.M.

This meeting is being called by Pittsfield Mayor Frank Penstone and is open to all who have an interest in locating the new expressway as close to the present Route No. 36 as possible rather than a by-pass many miles to the north of Jacksonville and Pittsfield as has been proposed by Quincy delegations.

Mayor Holkenbrink commented, "This must be of great concern to all of us who want for our community, the best highway facilities possible," and he urged that a good representation from Jacksonville be present.

Editorial Comment

Too Young To Vote

One of the recurrent questions in American life is whether the minimum voting age should be lowered. The question comes more persistently to the fore when young Americans are in combat somewhere. Then it is often said, with specious logic, that if a youth is old enough to fight he is old enough to vote.

The New York state legislature has been discussing this matter. A bill that would lower the voting age from 21 to 18 is being considered. The chances are that if New York approves this, a new push for similar legislation will be on in other states.

It is therefore more interesting than it would ordinarily be that one of the polling outfits has put the question to a large number of teenagers. Though a majority of those queried did say they thought it would be a good idea to lower the voting age to 18, it was a slim majority—only 52 per cent.

Various interpretations could be placed on that, depending on one's view. It is cited here only as an indication that even among those most directly concerned there is no very strong thrust for lowering the voting age.

That is gratifying. In our estimation it would be a serious error to give 18-year-olds the vote, though some of them are better informed than their parents. The kind of maturity that can come only with age and experience is a vital element in electoral judgment. There is little enough maturity in the electorate as it is. Giving 18-year-olds the vote would make the problem worse.

The Age Of The Drive-in

It was only about 30 years ago that the first drive-in movie in the country was built. What was an oddity then has now become a way of life.

The old drive-in hotdog stand has evolved into the drive-in restaurant where a family can enjoy—well, eat—a full-course meal in their car. In some places you can go to church in your car, and almost everywhere today you can do your banking from your car.

Some motels now have drive-in registration and bicycle bellhops. As of yet you can't drive into your room, but at a new hotel in San Francisco guests can drive right to their floors inside the building.

Drive-in supermarkets are another recent development, the American Automobile Association reports. Shoppers drive through wide lanes of merchandise while walking attendants remove items selected and place them in a large basket that is attached to the car.

In Ontario, there's even a drive-in barbershop. The barber works from the back seat and for a change directions are given from the front.

In Lovelady, Tex., appropriately enough, a justice of the peace will perform a marriage ceremony in your car.

Add drive-in maternity hospitals and drive-in mortuaries and the life cycle of Homo sapiens automobilis will be complete.

Dear Ann:

Secretaries Answer Minnie's Beef

By ANN LANDERS
Dear Ann Landers: I'm a secretary who would like to say a word to Minnie, the cleaning woman. Her job is to clean, isn't it? So what is she beefing about?

And what on earth is a secretary supposed to do with orange peels, apple cores, pencil shavings and paper cups? There are no garbage cans in our office and the wastebasket is the only place to dump these items. Maybe Minnie thinks we should carry the trash home with us. And what business is it of hers if we leave shoes under our desks?

Now about turning off the copying machines. Please tell Minnie (and all other overly interested cleaning women) to keep their pea-pickin' hands OFF this equipment. Modern copying machines will not wear out if they are allowed to run continuously and electricity isn't THAT expensive. The copying machines in our office are supposed to be left on because it is more costly and time-consuming to start them up every day than to keep them running.

If Minnie would pay more attention to the dirt in the corners and the mop marks on the walls she wouldn't have time to find fault with the secretaries. FILE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

Dear File: I have heard from hundreds of secretaries and what I hear makes sense. O.K., Minnie, how about it? What "ARE" secretaries supposed to do with orange peels and apple cores and paper cups when there are no garbage cans available?

And now about those copying machines? I checked a half dozen office managers and four said they turn off the machines at the end of the day. Two said they leave their machines running continuously. So, to be on the safe side, the cleaning woman should not touch the equipment. Are you listening, Minnie?

Dear Ann Landers: My husband and I have been married less than a year and both our families think we are the happiest couple on the face of the earth. They don't know the half of it. Am I unreasonable to expect my husband to treat me with the same common courtesy that he would show a customer or the woman next door? He walks in front of me, steps on my feet, lets doors slam in my face, and interrupts me whenever he wishes to speak.

We argue a lot (in private, of course) because when I call his attention to his rudeness, he gets mad and says I am a fault-finder and a nagger.

I love my husband very much and sometimes he is so wonderful and sweet that I forget all about the bad days. But when he is rude and inconsiderate, it ties me up in knots. Please help me, Ann. —TRYING

Dear Trying: Try this experiment for 24 hours. Refrain from saying even one critical word to your husband. If he steps on your foot, say, "I hope you didn't hurt yourself, dear." When he lets a door slam in your face, say, "I'm sorry I didn't let you know I was behind you, dear." When he interrupts you, say, "Go ahead, dear, what I have to say can wait."

You will soon make him aware of his rudeness, but without carping or criticism. If you "ARE" a chronic nag (and I'll bet you are even though your nagging may be justifiable), the alteration in "your" behavior is bound to have a favorable effect on him.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

A GLANCE Into The Past

10 YEARS AGO
The Winchester Kiwanis club is building a tennis court in Monument Park.
Mrs. Vivian Smith and Mrs. Evelyn Young are co-chairmen of the committee in charge of preparing and serving the food at the annual Glasgow picnic July 26.

Supermarkets will feature pork this week. The bountiful supplies have brought the price of prime butcher hogs down to $16.25 in Chicago.
Pfc. Richard Smock of Murfreesboro recently qualified as an expert in firing the M-1 rifle in Germany.

20 YEARS AGO
G. H. Husted, farm adviser in Cass county for the past 21 years, has resigned. He will stay on the job until his successor is named.
Dr. O. F. Galloway of the MacMurray College faculty has been named Methodist lay leader of the Jacksonville district. He succeeds D. L. Musselman of Quincy.

A large audience viewed the historical pageant, "MacMurray Through the Years," when it was presented Saturday evening as a part of the Illinois Methodist Conference being held on the campus.

50 YEARS AGO
O. L. Crum of Listerbark took home with him yesterday a Ford runabout.
The village of Barry will vote on a $17,000 bond issue to improve the water system, which is now supplied by wells bored into limestone. Under the new plan water from Watson spring, located about a mile west of the city, will be piped in.

Al (Kid) Baldwin, our local prize fighter, came home yesterday from Drumwright with a broken jaw received when he fought Sailor Kirke Monday night. Al must now cancel three proposed bouts, and will be out of the ring for not a little time.

75 YEARS AGO
This is good corn weather and the crop is looking well.
It is better to be out of the world than out of fashion. So say the club which eats at the College Avenue Sanitarium, and so they have "lunch" at 12 and "dinner" at 6.

Few finer lots of hogs were ever raised than those recently sold by Messrs. T. B. and Frank Orear. There were 253 porkers and they averaged 339 pounds.
Attention is called to the ad of Jake Cohen, who is located next to Graham's soap factory. He wants to buy rags, old metals, bottles, etc., and will pay best prices in cash.

100 YEARS AGO
The small pox is said to have appeared in Springfield. The authorities have posted on several houses, "Small Pox in this House."

Dr. E. Clark of Rushville says that gold actually exists in Schuyler county in paying quantities. He has found several deposits along Crooked Creek and will open a mine on the farm of Mrs. Horney, west of Littleton, next week.

Camp Butler, east of Springfield, next week will be abolished, and all the material and other property sold at auction. Thus ends the great rebellion so far as the State of Illinois is concerned.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — It is becoming a commonplace in this capital that even men who are comfortable with big government are worried about it.

Actually, this concern is not new. It showed itself in the Kennedy administration, when special juvenile delinquency projects were designed to magnify local control and downplay Washington.

In many aspects, the poverty program consciously follows this example.

One can hardly attend a major conference these days without hearing new stress put on the need for stronger action at the state and local level. The theme ran through many speeches and comments in the two-day White House parley on civil rights.

Even those friendliest to a big federal establishment see a limit to what Washington can manage successfully. The view is growing that state and, especially, local participation is absolutely demanded if various health, welfare and civil rights programs are to be genuinely effective.

There can be no complaint that state and local governments are not expanding. Since World War II their combined expenditures have risen from $20 billion annually to around $90 billion. Experts predict their outlays may catch up with federal spending (defense included) in the early 1970s.

The relative gain in state-local outlays exceeds federal growth by a fair margin in the last two decades. If defense expenditures be left out of calculation, the state-local jump is much greater.

There is, however, a sticker in all this. The population specialists say that in the decades just ahead Americans will move about from place to place even more often than they do now. Figures show that one in every five currently moves each year.

Politicians, already fretful over the constant shifts in the make-up of local constituencies, are wondering how any kind of stable electorate can be built at that level. Mobility in the job field is sending people not merely to different neighborhoods, but from Seattle to Dallas to Kansas City to Baltimore and points beyond.

Party professionals agree that with such major mobility accelerated, not too many Americans can be expected to feel intense attachment to particular places. Their "home areas" may be as numerous as those of career servicemen.

The question that follows is: "How can such a floating citizenry be counted upon to take active interest in local problems when they will be constantly trading them in for another set?"

One election expert here thinks people simply will not develop that interest, that they are already too accustomed to looking at problems from the national perspective.

Yet John Anderson, the former Kansas governor who is now leading one of several groups bent on improving state government, believes that floating citizens may become "issue-oriented" rather than "place-oriented."

Wherever they move, he suggests, they may jump almost instantly into domestic matters that really concern them—the condition and function of schools, transportation to and from work, civil rights developments, housing issues, and so on.

One Washington observer goes so far as to add that the process of moving from one area to another may so enlarge the mobile American's experience with the grasp of local affairs that in time he may become a far more alert and astute participant than he is today.

This has the ring of idealistic fancy. But if there is not at least some soundness in it, then the worriers over big government in Washington are going to have a great deal more to frown about for the rest of this century.

Lamb, the flesh and carcass of a young sheep, is eaten all over the world, since there is no objection to its use on religious grounds. But the United Kingdom is the only country in the northern hemisphere consuming any large quantity of lamb and mutton, the flesh of more mature sheep. ### The World Today

By JAMES E. MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — It wouldn't be normal if the world wasn't uneasy. This is a very normal time, full of fuss and fret.

Just as opinion polls show dwindling public confidence in President Johnson's handling of the war in Viet Nam, his administration pumps out information that things are looking better there.

But Premier Nguyen Cao Ky hasn't yet suppressed the Buddhists demonstrating against him; one day after another seems unpredictable; and the administration's optimism may be premature.

Fourteen North Atlantic Treaty Organization allies, including the United States, have just patched together their alliance with French President Charles de Gaulle who is pulling his troops out of NATO and wants NATO bases out of France.

Uneasy, they tried not to offend the saucy Frenchman as he prepares for a trip to Moscow to have his own summit meeting with the Russians, an adventure whose outcome also is unpredictable.

The Western allies have no monopoly on the nervous feeling. The whole Communist world is looking tattered.

The Warsaw Pact nations, the Red counterpart to NATO, have had a dragged-out meeting with Romania wondering out loud if it wouldn't be better to scrap NATO and the Warsaw Pact, too.

Russian-Chinese relations couldn't be much worse, but they're getting to be anyway and the Chinese are so far from being relaxed that they are purging themselves, which leaves the West more puzzled than ever.

In recent years the Supreme Court irritated politicians on questioning aspects in a crime. Distrust, atonings, and police were crying "no more."

This week the court went all out and laid down more restrictions in this field than at any time in history. The police means were nationwide.

With the opinion polls also showing Johnson's popularity at its lowest point, you might think the would-be presidents among the Republicans would be perking up. Just the contrary.

To The Taxpayer of District 17:
At the recent Board of Education meeting it was stated that Walter McEvers of Lynnvill was given permission to use the Lynnvill School building for the Scott County Saddle Club. Why should Morgan County provide a meeting place for the well-to-do Scott county club?

With the closing of the school the 4-H club was forced out of a meeting place.

Why couldn't this building be either rented for profit or sold? If not either, shouldn't other clubs have the same chance. We are taxpayers in this district. A Taxpayer.

June 10, 1966

Communication:
The City ordinance passed that dogs be kept on their own property and on leash when off is fine. It is what most dog owners who care about their pets want and would do anyway.

The same ordinance would certainly be appreciated by the average person and prevent damaging of flower and vegetable gardens not to mention the prowling and howling in the middle of the night and early morning and causing dogs to bark which is their nature to be alert and protective.

There is a tax assessment on dogs. They are to have rabies shots each year which should also apply to cats as most any child loves animals and will pick them up and might easily be scratched or bitten by a rabid cat the same as a rabid dog.

A 'one-dog' family

Dear Editor:
About this "Anti Barking Law to Control Dogs." As a resident of Jacksonville, we enjoy hearing dogs bark, the birds sing. This is what our God in heaven wants us to hear with his blessing and don't you forget it.

Maybe some of the aldermen in Jacksonville do not know that barking dogs have helped prevent crime. We had the experience of our dog barking in the middle of the night when someone was up to no good and was scared off.

Maybe they did not read about the dog that was barking when its master's home was burning in the night and saved that family's life.

When we moved to Jacksonville ten years ago we thought it was a lovely town but now we are not so sure that it is.

People who do not want to hear noise of the city should put cotton in their ears.

Sincerely yours

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Many Factors Play Part in Asthma

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.
Although asthma has long been recognized as an allergic disease, other factors appear to play a part in its cause. Their exact role is not altogether clear. For example, emotional stress, although rarely if ever the sole cause, may trigger an attack and long continued emotional stress may aggravate what would otherwise be a mild case.

Some asthmatic persons appear to have a defect of their heat-regulating mechanism. Their surface temperature of their palms is lower than that of normal persons and after immersion in cold water the temperature returns to the pre-immersion level more slowly.

This may account for the fact that a sudden cold spell often precipitates asthmatic attacks in these persons. Another possibility is that, with the onset of cold weather, indoor heating units are turned on and the dust level of the indoor air is increased. If this is in truth a factor it would be helpful to have a thorough fall cleaning instead of, or in addition to, the customary spring cleaning.

Besides soot and lint, house dust often contains a variety of molds. One of these, Candida albicans, the mold that causes thrush, has been found to be especially bad for asthmatics. Treatment with the antifungal agents used against thrush are, however, of no use in the treatment of asthmatic attacks from this cause.

A recent study conducted in Iowa has suggested that some germ or virus present in asthmatics may be transmitted from person to person as a result of prolonged close contact. For example, some persons who had no previous allergies developed them after 10 to 36 years with a marital partner who was asthmatic.

Furthermore, asthma was found to develop more frequently in children when the mother, with whom contact is closer, was asthmatic than when the father was afflicted. It was also more common in siblings who occupied the same bed than in those who slept in separate beds.

A treatment for asthmatic attacks that has recently become very popular is inhalation through the mouth of isoproterenol and similar drugs in an aerosol. One puff usually gives relief within 30 seconds, but when it doesn't, more harm than good is likely to result from taking a series of puffs at short intervals. Therefore, if you are using an aerosol for your asthma, be sure to follow the instructions on the label.

We, the Women

Nobody Applies the Brakes

By RUTH MILLETT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

At that swinging Washington party where the wife of a State Department officer was asked to go home and put a slip on under her transparent lace dress (she arrived wearing a body stocking under it), the reaction of the lady and her husband go a long way to explain why designers can get women to wear anything they dream up.

The wearer of the see-through gown remarked: "I guess Washington isn't ready for fashion yet. This dress was created by a New York designer especially for this party."

From the woman's angle, the fact that a name designer had created her gown made it in perfectly good taste. A name designer from a clothes-conscious woman's point of view can do no wrong. And this attitude sits down to women all over the country who buy their clothes off racks. Anything that is a copy of what "they" are wearing is acceptable—no matter how unbecoming or immodest it may be. And what did the lady's husband have to say about the transparent gown that got sent home? His comment is also revealing: "At first I was shocked by it. But I figured, 'Oh, well it's fashion.'"

In just such a manner have husbands and fathers all over the country shrugged off their masculine right to say: "No wife—or no daughter—of mine is going out of the house in that outfit."

So there's nobody to put on the brakes, and the designers can get women to wear anything—bathing suits with big, round, see-through holes; skirts so short school authorities say they disrupt classes; ugly styles obviously created to make a woman look as awkward and ludicrous as possible.

The woman says: "It's the latest fashion so it has to be all right." And the man of the family weakly says, "I don't like it—but I suppose if it's the fashion it's all right."

Serve Fresh Hawaiian Pineapple

FRESH HAWAIIAN PINEAPPLE will please Dad.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Lanai, one of the Hawaiian Islands, is actually nothing more than a mammoth pineapple plantation.

Perfectly ripe pineapples have their own unique sweet, slightly tart taste and wonderful fragrance. We recalled, as we waited for our plane back to Honolulu, that our soft-spoken friend, Brian Daly, the Dublin-born director of New York's beautiful sky-high Rainbow Room, once told us that fresh pineapple desserts go big with men. We tried one, sitting at a window table with a sweeping view over the lighted city out to the darkened sea.

Fresh Pineapple
A La Rainbow Room
(Serves 4 to 6)
4 small ripe pineapples
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
2-3 cup sugar
1/2 cup cold water
1 pint fresh strawberries
1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract

1 cup heavy cream, whipped
Cut each pineapple in half. Shape top into "handle" leaving frond attached. Cut off fruit with grapefruit knife. Remove core and cut fruit in small dice. Reserve 3 cups. Extra may be used in fruit cups. Turn shells upside down to drain. Drain excess liquid from the 3 cups diced pineapple. In saucepan combine pineapple and sugar. Let stand 15 minutes. Meanwhile soften gelatin in cold water. Bring pineapple mixture to a rapid boil. Cover and boil 5 minutes. Stir in softened gelatin. Chill until thickened. Hull strawberries; reserve a few for garnish. Put remaining berries in blender or mash and force through sieve. Fold strawberry puree into pineapple mixture along with vanilla and whipped cream. Turn into pineapple baskets and top with "handle" or spoon into 1 1/2-quart souffle or serving dish. Refrigerate until set. Before serving garnish with strawberries.

The New England lobster inserts a grain of sand near the base of each feeler to help keep a bearing in its nearly weightless state in water. Gravity exerts a faint but constant downward pull on the sand grains, giving the lobster what amounts to a built-in plumb line.

That gigantic shovel above working in an Illinois coal mine needs millions of watts of electric energy every time it takes a bite. Big job. Important job.
On the other hand, warming the milk for Illinois Power's newest customer here in Jacksonville takes only about five watts of electricity. Little job—but just as important!
And so we do our best to provide the most dependable electric service possible today—and to keep improving generating and distribution facilities to give you even better service tomorrow.

Polly's Pointers To Wash or Not to Wash

By POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
Polly's Problem

DEAR POLLY—Can an all-sequin sweater be washed or should it be dry cleaned? The sequins are sewn on. —MRS. H. K. B.

MRS. H. K. B.—I would never wash a sequin-covered sweater. However, some of the readers may have tried it and if so I am sure they will tell us what success they had. —POLLY

DEAR POLLY—When knitting a complicated sweater pattern where each row is different I find it helpful to put a stitch counter on the needle and each time a row is finished I change the row number on the counter. I can lay my knitting down at anytime and know what row to start on just by looking at the counter. They cost very little. —FLORENCE

DEAR KNITTERS—I am sure you all understand that Florence turns the counter back each time a pattern is completed and then starts again with row one. —POLLY

DEAR POLLY—I liked the lady's idea about dividing her child's toys and putting some of them away and then rotating each week or so, since my own toddler's toy chest was bulging and he threw everything out on the floor. After sterilizing the toys I placed them in suitcases so as to save needed closet space. I really do not know what we ladies would do without the helpful Pointers. —SHARON

DEAR POLLY—I want to tell Fannie that I have been making gelatin desserts for 30 years and have found that the easiest way to remove a large dessert or salad from the mold is to let hot water run in the sink, place serving plate over the mold, and, holding with both hands, plunge mold in hot water almost to the top and quickly invert on the serving plate.

To guarantee that the mold stays in its decorative design, I first pour a little salad oil

Kosygin Says Russia Will Avoid Deep Involvement In Viet Nam

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Premier Alexei Kosygin has told the Soviet people and the Communist world, in effect, that the U.S.S.R. will avoid becoming any more deeply involved in Viet Nam than it is at present. He counseled that patience will pay dividends in the long run.

In a speech in Moscow Wednesday, the Soviet government chief offered this assessment of Viet Nam:

Administration advisers in Viet Nam did a disservice to the U.S. government because "they had prepared recommendations as to where and how the war should be started, but had not recommended how to get out of it."

"This," he said, "is precisely the question which now worries the most sober-minded leaders of the United States."

The Kosygin implication is that sober-minded leaders in the United States now are hopelessly entangled and in reality are looking for a way out of the Viet Nam war. He then went on to say that understanding of this was of great importance in assessing the world situation.

This suggests that Russia is willing at this time to wait and watch. Most of Kosygin's speech had to do with domestic affairs — shortages of some food and light industry items and plans to overcome such problems in the ensuing five-year period. Meanwhile, the Soviet Union is, in his words, giving the Viet Nam Communists whatever aid is "necessary."

Significantly, this discussion of Viet Nam immediately preceded an appeal to the rest of the world's Communists to show patience with Soviet policy and to present a united front to the rest of the world.

He said he was convinced "the time will come" when China's Communists will close ranks with Soviet Communists. The phraseology indicates Kosygin by no means thinks that time is the near future.

Indeed, party relations between Peking and Moscow are worse now than they ever have been and show signs of further deterioration. Evidently the Soviet Communists expect little of benefit to themselves to come out of a current widespread party purge inside Red China.

The Red Chinese leadership is in full cry against what they call "all the monsters and goblins and all the Khrushchev-style counterrevolutionary revisionists" in China. What Peking calls "a great cultural revolution" — a Red Chinese euphemism for the present purge — is intended, evidently, to sweep away any in the upper reaches of the Chinese party who have had any notions whatever of accommodating the Chinese regime to Soviet policies.

The warning has gone out that the purge can reach into the highest levels, even into the ranks of old comrades-in-arms of Mao Tse-tung, the ailing leader who now is being glorified as a Communist demigod. People's Daily of Peking said the "only way is down and out" for whoever opposes the current Chinese line, "no matter who he is, how high his position or whether he is a veteran."

In the light of this sort of propaganda and the attempt of the Peking regime to rally mass hysteria against these now designated as enemies and criminals, there seems virtually no prospect of finding an avenue toward reconciliation with the Soviet party.

Indeed, Kosygin's latest pronouncement on the Viet Nam situation and the apparent Soviet intention to play it cool can only serve to enrage the Peking politburo all the more.

It is highly unlikely that the Russians could seriously delude themselves on this score. Kosygin, in speaking of some future unity of the whole Communist world, appears to have been simply explaining why Soviet policy at the moment is what it is, and implying a hope that some day in the distant future there may be a change in Peking.

Kosygin Says Russia Will Avoid Deep Involvement In Viet Nam

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent
Premier Alexei Kosygin has told the Soviet people and the Communist world, in effect, that the U.S.S.R. will avoid becoming any more deeply involved in Viet Nam than it is at present. He counseled that patience will pay dividends in the long run.

In a speech in Moscow Wednesday, the Soviet government chief offered this assessment of Viet Nam:

Administration advisers in Viet Nam did a disservice to the U.S. government because "they had prepared recommendations as to where and how the war should be started, but had not recommended how to get out of it."

"This," he said, "is precisely the question which now worries the most sober-minded leaders of the United States."

The Kosygin implication is that sober-minded leaders in the United States now are helplessly entangled and in reality are looking for a way out of the Viet Nam war. He then went on to say that understanding of this was of great importance in assessing the world situation.

This suggests that Russia is willing at this time to wait and watch. Most of Kosygin's speech had to do with domestic affairs — shortages of some food and light industry items and plans to overcome such problems in the ensuing five-year period. Meanwhile, the Soviet Union is, in his words, giving the Viet Nam Communists whatever aid is "necessary."

Significantly, this discussion of Viet Nam immediately preceded an appeal to the rest of the world's Communists to show patience with Soviet policy and to present a united front to the rest of the world.

He said he was convinced "the time will come" when China's Communists will close ranks with Soviet Communists. The phraseology indicates Kosygin by no means thinks that time is the near future.

Indeed, party relations between Peking and Moscow are worse now than they ever have been and show signs of further deterioration. Evidently the Soviet Communists expect little of benefit to themselves to come out of a current widespread party purge inside Red China.

The Red Chinese leadership is in full cry against what they call "all the monsters and goblins and all the Khrushchev-style counterrevolutionary revisionists" in China.

What Peking calls "a great cultural revolution" — a Red Chinese euphemism for the present purge — is intended, evidently, to sweep away any in the upper reaches of the Chinese party who have had any notions whatever of accommodating the Chinese regime to Soviet policies.

The warning has gone out that the purge can reach into the highest levels, even into the ranks of old comrades-in-arms of Mao Tze-tung, the ailing leader who now is being glorified as a Communist demigod. People's Daily of Peking said the "only way is down and out" for whoever opposes the current Chinese line, "no matter who he is, how high his position or whether he is a veteran."

In the light of this sort of propaganda and the attempt of the Peking regime to rally mass hysteria against these now designated as enemies and criminals, there seems virtually no prospect of finding an avenue toward reconciliation with the Soviet party.

Indeed, Kosygin's latest pronouncement on the Viet Nam situation and the apparent Soviet intention to play it cool can only serve to enrage the Peking politburo all the more.

It is highly unlikely that the Russians could seriously delude themselves on this score. Kosygin, in speaking of some future unity of the whole Communist world, appears to have been simply explaining why Soviet policy at the moment is what it is, and implying a hope that some day in the distant future there may be a change in Peking.

Giants Slam Five Homers, Win 11-7

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Willie McCovey's two-run homer in the seventh inning snapped a 7-7 tie, powering the San Francisco Giants to an 11-7 victory over the Chicago Cubs Tuesday.

McCovey's 12th homer, following a single by pinch hitter Jim Davenport in the seventh, was the fifth of the game for the National League-leading Giants. Willie Mays, Tom Haller, Ollie Brown and Jim Hart also connected for San Francisco.

Billy Hoelt, the third Chicago pitcher, gave up McCovey's tie-breaking shot and also was clipped for a run-scoring double by Hal Lanier in the seventh.

Fired Cuba High Coach Sues School Board

LEWISTOWN, Ill. (AP)—Glen Strausbaugh, recently released as head football and basketball coach at Cuba High School, filed a $200,000 damage suit in Circuit Court in Lewistown Tuesday against the Cuba school board.

Strausbaugh said the dismissal damaged his professional standing. The nine-member board said Strausbaugh was dismissed "for consistent failure to meet financial obligations; for failure to cooperate with superiors in the best interest of the school, and for using profanity in the presence of students."

Strausbaugh, 40, said in his suit that "the school board has a personal animosity toward me" and that it failed to show evidence supporting its charges. Strausbaugh, a native of Rushville, Ill., and a Western Illinois University graduate, also was an English teacher at Cuba High School.

He had been coaching at Cuba six years.

Tom Farrell 3rd In VFW State Golf Tournament

Tom Farrell, local amateur golfer and the only Viet Nam veteran in amateur golfing in Illinois, won 3rd place in the VFW State Golf Tournament held in Bloomington on Sunday, June 12.

He was well out in first place through the first round but slipped back into third in the last of the second. There were 144 golfers in the tournament and most of them had their eyes on the young golfer from Jacksonville. Farrell is finishing college and working with the Hertzberg New Method Inc.

First place winner was Cutty Mikinas of Kewanee Post 8078, and second place was Bob Hoster of Joliet Post 367. Tom is a member of the local Post 1379, which sponsored him. Those attending the game and the Golfers Banquet from the local Post were Mrs. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Cy McCurley and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Vaniter.

IN STEP—Washington second baseman Bob Saverine knows the steps, but it didn't help on this hard drive which wound up in right field for a base hit.

Cardinals Bomb Mets, Rusteck 9-2

NEW YORK (AP) — St. Louis knocked out Dick Rusteck, a shutout winner Friday in his first major league start, and scored six runs in the second inning Tuesday on the way to a 9-2 victory over the New York Mets.

Eleven Cards went to the plate in the second when Jerry Buchek hit a two-run homer. There were five singles, a walk, an interference call against catcher John Stephenson and a double steal in the inning.

Rusteck, who had blanked Cincinnati in his first appearance after his recall from Jacksonville, never got anybody out this time. Lou Brock led the Cards' attack with a homer, double, two singles and two stolen bases.

Pony-Colt League

Rotary and Jaycees fought to an eight-inning 1-1 standoff in a game called because a player from each team was kicked out and neither had nine players left, in Colt League play Tuesday evening. Lucky Boy blanked Contractors, 7-0, in a game highlighted by a triple play, in Pony League action.

Rotary and Jaycees were tied after seven innings before the two players were booted. Rotary had scored one run in the eighth, but the contest will have to be replayed from the top of the inning.

Larry Barton gave up only two hits in his seven innings for Rotary, fanning nine, while Chuck Stratman gave up two hits and walked 11 in his seven frames of work.

Lucky Boy's Steve Western tossed a 15-strikeout one-hitter at Contractors, coming on the heels of a no-hitter his last time out.

Contractors' Harold Leitze caught a fly ball hit by Ralph Retherford, tagged a runner coming off first and threw to second for a triple play.

McGowan Strips Flyweight Title From Burrini

LONDON (AP) — Walter McGowan, 23-year-old Scot, outpointed Salvatore Burrini of Italy and stripped him of his disputed world flyweight boxing title Tuesday night.

McGowan, 23, jabbed his way to victory in the early rounds and survived a vicious cut over his right eye suffered in the middle of the fight.

The 15-rounder, before about 6,000 at indoor Wembley Stadium, saw McGowan covered in blood from the cut in the last round.

At times he tried to wipe the blood out of his eyes, and it poured down the right side of his face. But he still boxed his way out of trouble against the 33-year-old Italian.

McGowan weighed 111½ pounds — five ounces inside the flyweight limit. Burrini was five ounces over at the first attempt but an hour later weighed in at 110 pounds.

The Associated Press card gave McGowan five rounds and Burrini four with the rest even. Burrini had been recognized as world champion by the British and European boxing boards.

But the World Boxing Council and the World Boxing Association consider Argentina's Horacio Accavallo as champion. The WBC and WBA stripped Burrini of the title for failing to defend the crown against Japan's Hiroyuki Ebihara before last Nov. 1.

Houston Nips LA And Koufax, 3-0

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Houston ended Sandy Koufax' eight-game winning streak and handed the Los Angeles ace his second loss in 13 decisions this season, beating the Dodgers 3-0 Tuesday night on Larry Dierker's five-hitter.

Chuck Harrison, brought up only Monday from the Pacific Coast League, broke up a scoreless duel between Koufax and Dierker with a bases-loaded single in the sixth inning.

Infield hits by Sonny Jackson and Dave Nicholson and a single to center by Joe Morgan loaded the bases before Harrison drove in two runs with his big hit.

Bob Aspromonte wrapped up the Astros' scoring with a seventh-inning homer.

Dierker, 3-1, struck out four and retired 13 out of 14 Dodgers at one stretch.

It was Houston's first victory over Koufax since April 14, 1963. Houston 000 002 100—3 8 0

Indians Split With Red Sox In Homer Battle

CLEVELAND (AP) — George Thomas and George Scott hammered ninth-inning home runs that earned Boston an 11-7 victory and a split of its two-night doubleheader against Cleveland Tuesday night.

Fred Whitfield drove in five runs as the Indians won the opener 8-7. Rocky Colavito's grand slammer in the eighth inning had tied the nightcap at 7-7, but Thomas broke the deadlock with his second home run of the season.

After Carl Yastrzemski walked and Tony Conigliaro singled, Scott whacked his second home run of the game and 16th of the season, wrapping it up.

Sonny Siebert, who pitched a no-hitter in his last appearance Friday night, picked up his sixth victory in the opener, although he was knocked out in the seventh inning by a four-run Boston rally.

Whitfield hit a three-run homer and a two-run single in the first game and came back with a homer—his eighth—and two singles in the nightcap.

Homers by George Smith and Scott helped the Red Sox to an early lead in the second game. (Second game)

Senators Break Losing Skein In Slim 3-2 Margin

DETROIT (AP)—Willie Kirkland drove in the winning run with a seventh-inning single as Washington snapped an eight-game losing streak with a 3-2 victory over the Detroit Tigers Tuesday night.

The Senators broke a 2-2 tie in the seventh when Fred Valentine was hit by a pitch. Don Lock's third hit of the game moved Valentine to third, and Kirkland's single to left brought him home.

The Tigers nipped Phil Ortega for a run in the first on Dick McAuliffe's pop fly double and Al Kaline's single.

Tiger starter Bill Monbouquette missed his 100th victory for the fourth time but did pass one milestone. His strikeout of Ed Brinkman in the second inning was the 1,000th of his career.

Hurlers Hot Items In Trading Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Pitchers are the hottest item on the market in the flurry of action before baseball's June 15 trade deadline with such big names as Earl Wilson, Eddie Fisher, Dick Radatz, John Wyatt and Fred Talbot involved in deals.

After midnight Wednesday no deals can be made unless waivers have been obtained in the league. The waiver price is only $20,000.

Detroit moved to bolster its pitching staff Tuesday by acquiring Earl Wilson, a regular starter with a 5-5 record, from the Boston Red Sox.

A deal with the same club last winter added Bill Monbouquette to the Tiger staff. In order to land Wilson, Detroit had to give up outfielder Don Demeter. The Tigers are deep in outfield talent with injured Mickey Stanley about ready to swing back into action.

Indians Get Radatz
Cleveland, girding for a tough pennant fight, picked up Radatz, the monster of the bullpen, from Boston in a recent deal.

Radatz was shelled in his first outing for the Indians but has pitched effectively in later appearances.

Need for bullpen help also prompted the Baltimore Orioles to complete a swap with the Chicago White Sox by which Hank Bauer got Eddie Fisher, the knuckleball artist, to team with relievers Eddie Watt and Stu Miller while Dick Hall is getting back in stride.

The White Sox, who are deep in pitching, grabbed second baseman Jerry Adair who had been riding the bench unhappily in Baltimore. Adair was the second addition to the Sox' second-base corps in recent weeks.

Wayne Causey having come over from Kansas City earlier in a deal for outfielder Danny Cater.

The New York Yankees, still talking about getting into the race although unable to reach the 500 level, reached into Kansas City again for pitcher Talbot, whose first outing was not a howling success. To get Talbot and catcher Bill Bryan, the Yankees gave the A's pitchers Bill.

Ryun competed in the U.S. Track and Field Federation meet at Terre Haute, Ind., last Friday and Saturday in the face of threats by the Amateur Athletic Union that athletes who participated in the meet would be banned from the Nationals here.

The AAU maintained that the USTFF meet was an open meet in that non-collegians also competed and this required its sanction. The USTFF, an arm of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, refused to apply for AAU sanction.

Ryun and other athletes who competed in the USTFF meet will be declared eligible for the AAU meet by Theodore Kheel, an informed source told the Associated Press.

Kirkpatrick And Chance Spark 10-4 Angels' Edge

CHICAGO (AP) — Ed Kirkpatrick smashed two homers and knocked in four runs Tuesday as the California Angels whipped the Chicago White Sox 10-4 and pitcher Dean Chance ended a six-game losing streak despite 15 Chicago hits.

Home runs came early as Kirkpatrick lofted a solo shot in the second inning and Jose Cardenal did the same for his No. 7 in the third.

Kirkpatrick boosted his season total to five with a blast into the upper right-field deck in the eighth after Norm Siebern had walked. Before the eighth was over, the Angels had scored again when Tom Satriano walked and Paul Schaaf doubled.

The Angels tallied once in the fourth off weakening starter John Buzhardt on Jim Fregosi's triple and Kirkpatrick's sacrifice fly.

Wedge, Not Driver Key To U.S. Open

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The wedge and not the driver will win the 66th U.S. Open Golf Championship, predicts Arnold Palmer, who contradicts himself by conceding an edge to the biggest hitter of them all, Jack Nicklaus.

"Jack hits a high, towering ball," Palmer said Tuesday as the full field of 151 checked in for the blue ribbon tournament starting Thursday. "It takes a soft lob shot to hold these small greens. Nobody hits that shot better than Nicklaus."

Another solid vote for the 210-pound Nicklaus came from the little defending champion, Gary Player of South Africa, who acknowledged:

"If there is one individual favorite, it has to be Jack," the pride of Johannesburg said. "He has a game for this course—well let's face it, he has the game for any course, but this one particularly."

One Of Toughest
The 6,727-yard par-70 Olympic Country Club Course, which the world's best golfers attack for four rounds through Sunday, is generally proclaimed to be one of the toughest and fairest layouts on which the Open has ever been played.

Its gun-barrel fairways are flanked by 43,000 eucalyptus, pine and cedar trees, creating virtual tunnels for the driving areas.

The fairways are so narrow the pundits say competitors and caddies must walk them single file, Indian fashion. And the greens are so small the ball cannot be marked with a coin larger than a dime.

The rough is thick and knotty and the grass around the greens is a fluffy, jelly-like substance which confounds even the best of the chipping specialists.

Responding to the anguished cries of the early testers, Joe Dey, executive director of the U.S. Golf Association, ordered Tuesday that all rough be cut back to four inches. It had been allowed to grow to knee length.

Hogan Impressed
Ben Hogan, at 53, shooting for his fifth National Open over a course where he lost in a play-off to little-known Jack Fleck 11 years ago, calls the rough the most formidable he has ever seen.

"Maybe some of the muscle boys can do it, but I can't reach the green from this rough," he protested.

Palmer said Hogan should play the course very well but added that Nicklaus should have a distinct advantage because of the loft of his shots. He also named as threats such fine iron players as Tony Lema and Ken Venturi and adroit chippers, Julius Boros and Billy Casper.

The field will consist of 133 professionals and 18 amateurs, the latter group led by National Champion Bob Murphy and two-time winner Deane Beaman. An amateur hasn't won the Open since Johnny Goodman did in 1933.

Soviets Break Gentlemen's Agreement In Treaty Talk

GENEVA (AP) — A virulent Soviet attack of U.S. policy in Viet Nam marked the resumption of the 17-nation disarmament talks Tuesday. The tirade broke a tacit understanding that Viet Nam should not be allowed to disturb the Geneva negotiations.

Soviet chief delegate Alexei A. Roschin told the meeting there can be no treaty to stop a spread of nuclear weapons as long as the United States continues its military operations in Viet Nam. Such a treaty is the main issue before the conference.

Bitter Speech
 Roschin's speech, one of the most bitter delivered in the four years of the conference, was denounced by U.S. chief negotiator William C. Foster as a propaganda blast.

Roschin accused the United States of duplicity in sending more troops to Viet Nam, what he called a mercenary campaign against freedom-loving Vietnamese people while resuming talks about peace in Geneva. He said Washington thus increased the arms race and is responsible for prospects of no progress in Geneva.

Roschin's predecessor, Semion K. Tsarapkin, had assured the conference earlier this year that the Viet Nam conflict, though regrettable from his government's point of view, should not be allowed to disturb the negotiations in Geneva. Tsarapkin has since been appointed ambassador to West Germany.

Critical Remarks
 When Roschin took over more than two months ago, critical remarks about the U.S. role in Viet Nam began cropping up in his statements and those of the delegates from Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Poland and Romania.

But these asides, though sometimes stinging, were short and mild compared with the Soviet delegate's long and bitter statement Tuesday.

Western delegation officials said it sounded like a concentrated recapitulation of every main criticism the Soviet Union has voiced against Washington during the past six months. Roschin attacked the United States over Viet Nam and the prospect of Atlantic nuclear weapons sharing with West Germany.

He accused Washington of fomenting the arms race and trying to sabotage an agreement to stop underground nuclear explosions.

Wilson Shakes Up Police Department

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago's police chief shook up his department Tuesday in moves against rioting that has brought terror to a Puerto Rican neighborhood on two successive nights.

O. W. Wilson, police superintendent, named Capt. James Holzman acting deputy chief of patrol to supervise the area including the Division Street district where eight persons have been shot and wounded, scores injured and more than 80 arrested.

A task force lieutenant and his sergeants spent the afternoon studying maps of the trouble zone and planning strategy against possible new outbreaks. Mayor Richard J. Daley met privately against possible new outbreaks. Mayor Richard J. Daley met privately with Spanish-speaking community leaders and called for obedience to law and preservation of order.

Holzman only recently took over command of the Chicago Avenue police district with orders to clean up vice and gambling in the Rush Street night club area. He will retain that assignment.

Curb Dog Use
 Wilson also ordered that only officers holding the rank of district commander or higher are authorized to call for the use of police dogs for controlling crowds.

"The presence of dogs stimulated the disorder" in the Puerto Rican rioting Sunday night, he said.

Neighborhood social and civic leaders blamed much of the rioting on a lack of communication between the residents and the police.

The area, colonized in Chicago's earlier days by Polish and German immigrants, has gradually been infiltrated by Puerto Ricans since World War II. Social welfare workers described the residents as extremely transient, shuttling back and forth to Puerto Rico and having little time for learning English or growing accustomed to big-city life.

Integrates Patrols
 In a third move the superintendent ordered immediate integration of two-man police patrols. The order specified that Negroes, Latin Americans, Jews and members of other minority groups will not work together when there are two-man teams available for integration.

Wilson said he issued the order because efforts to obtain voluntary integration had failed. Heretofore he steadfastly re-

Former Cardinal Pitcher Dies

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP)—Bill (Lefty) Walker, former St. Louis Cardinals and New York Giants pitcher, died Tuesday of cancer in Christian Welfare Hospital in East St. Louis. He was 62.

Walker, of East St. Louis, who was probate clerk for St. Clair County at the time of his death, had been ill for four years and was hospitalized the last 10 months.

He won 97 games and lost 77 in nine years in the major leagues before retiring after the 1936 season. He led the National League with a 2.26 earned run average with the Giants in 1931 and helped the Cardinals to the 1934 pennant with a 12-4 mark. He started the 1935 All-Star game.

Walker was assistant to the Illinois auditor of public accounts and treasurer of St. Clair County before becoming probate clerk in 1958.

Survivors include his widow, Bernadine, a daughter, Beth, and a son, William.

fused demands of civil rights groups that he order integration; his position was that enforced integration would lower morale in the department.

The Monday night outbreak began about dusk and hundreds of police poured into the mile-square Northwest Side area. Police estimated the many roving groups totaled 1,000. They smashed store windows, looted stores and stoned passenger au-

Battery Sparks Minnesota To 6-3 Margin Over KC

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Earl Battey doubled home a run in the eighth and singled another across in the ninth, sparking Minnesota to a 6-3 victory over Kansas City Tuesday night.

Battey broke a 3-3 tie in the eighth and knocked in the second of two runs the Twins scored in the ninth.

Battey's one-out double off Jack Aker in the eighth pinned the loss on Chuck Dobson and gave the victory to Dave Boswell, who limited Kansas City to five hits.

Detective Tells 'Bugging' Tricks To Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—A nervous private detective told Senate investigators Tuesday about the 10-day blitz, a do-it-yourself kit that keeps an automatic ear and eye on the indiscreet husband or wife.

"After about 10 days of conscientious use of this equipment," said John W. Leon, "if you don't come up with what you want, you might as well forget it."

His kit covers the telephone, any room in the house, and the family car, too. Leon, flitting at the witness table, brought the equipment along in an attache case.

"Boy, I'm nervous," the detective mumbled as he testified before a Senate subcommittee looking into invasion of privacy.

"Could you tell me about a new technique that you've got called the 10-day blitz?" asked Bernard Fensterwald Jr., the committee counsel.

Domestic Kit
 Leon said the kit is used in domestic cases, and he had a comment on that side of the detective business.

Five years ago, he said, half those cases involved wives who wanted to check up on their husbands. But now, said Leon, 80 per cent of the domestic clients are husbands trying to find out what their wives are up to.

Then he displayed the blitz kit. It includes a telephone bug — one an amateur can use — Leon said, a voice transmitter and voice-activated recorder.

"You can use any number of these to place around the house," Leon said of the voice transmitting equipment.

He added, "You can tell what is said either on the telephone or in any particular room."

"Then you have the automatic camera." It takes one frame of motion picture film at pre-set intervals, ranging up to 90 seconds, Leon said.

"At the end of a day you know everything that's gone on in the room," he told the senators.

For the family automobile, there's a microphone to be placed inside, and a recorder that is usually put in the spare tire well.

Leon said the kit costs about $400, compared with $500 to $1,000 for the services of a private detective over a 10-day period.

But Leon said new Federal Communications Commission regulations on wiretapping and eavesdropping equipment — rules he said are vague and confusing — apparently make it illegal to use some of the equipment.

"Do you have thoughts about the ethics of this?" asked Fensterwald.

Leon said domestic troubles are more likely to be settled once the facts are out in the open.

"So any time we make a case," he said, "I practically feel like a surgeon cutting out a cancer."

IVAN, REAY SIGN PACTS
 MONTREAL (AP) — General Manager Tommy Ivan and Coach Billy Reay have signed long-term contracts with the Chicago Black Hawks, the National Hockey League club announced Tuesday.

Arthur M. Wirtz Sr., the Black Hawks owner, made the announcement during the NHL's four-day summer meetings.

Wirtz said Ivan and Reay had been signed for "a period of years."

Ivan has been with the Hawks since 1954, and Reay will be starting his fourth season as coach.

Charles Pressey Of Florence Dies At Age 74

Marine Gunner Tells Of Killing Friendly Troops

WASHINGTON (AP) — A former Marine Corps crew chief and machine gunner told senators Tuesday of shooting friendly Viet Nam forces while under the influence of drugs.

The husky, honorably discharged Marine, identified only as Frank, testified at a Senate judiciary subcommittee hearing that pep pills, barbiturates and even heroin are readily available to servicemen in this country and overseas.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., asked for a Defense Department report on that.

Frank, 23, accompanied by his young wife, identified only as Dorothy, was introduced by Dr. Robert W. Baird, director of a narcotics treatment center in Harlem.

Baird testified on the basis of his personal experience that there are "a minimum of 10,000 to 15,000 heroin and barbiturate addicts in the service and easily 100,000 marijuana smokers." Frank said he flew some 125 combat missions in Viet Nam and was crew chief and gunner aboard a helicopter.

He said he had taken several "goofballs" during a quiet period in Viet Nam but there was an emergency call to evacuate some U.S. officials.

On this flight, Frank said, he was overcome by the drugs, thought South Viet Nam troops were Viet Cong and began shooting.

A Viet Nam major and sergeant major were wounded, Baird said, but the Marine sergeant was not disciplined because no one was aware he was drugged.

The ex-Marine said he joined when he was 17 and soon learned it was regarded as clever to try pep pills and goof balls along with beer and wine.

The former sergeant said he served from 1961 until his discharge 15 months ago.

House Gets Bill To Curb KKK
 WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Edwin E. Willis, D-La., introduced Tuesday a bill "to punish, curb and eliminate the reprehensible, terrorist activities" of the Ku Klux Klan movement.

Willis is chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, which has been investigating the Klan.

Willis said in a speech to the House that his measure would not be limited to the Klan.

It is intended, he said, "to curb and punish all organized terrorist activities of the kind the Klans have used—and to punish them, no matter what organization attempts to use them."

A key portion of the bill would permit the attorney general to seek federal court injunctions against activities by clandestine organizations aimed at breaking federal laws or at violence, harassment or intimidation of individual citizens.

Such injunctions — if violated — could be punished through contempt of court proceedings. Such a procedure had been urged earlier by Rep. Charles L. Weltner, D-Ga., a committee member. Weltner introduced Tuesday a bill similar to Willis'. The Willis bill also would provide for contempt proceedings against any witness who refuses to testify or produce records in such a case after being given immunity by the court.

Seven men identified by the committee as Klan leaders — among them Imperial Wizard Robert M. Shelton, have been indicted on contempt of Congress charges after refusing to provide records asked by the investigating group.

VETO INTER LEAGUE GAMES
 NEW YORK (AP) — A National Football League spokesman said Tuesday there was no chance of an exhibition game between a team in the NFL and the American Football League preceding the 1966 season.

The spokesman said any such game could not be played because of existing game and television contracts and the prevailing thought that the first meeting between the two leagues should be at the championship level.

The Washington Redskins of the NFL and the Boston Patriots of the AFL were reported to be dickering for an exhibition game in Canton, Ohio, Aug. 13 or 14.

The day of the swallows' return to Capistrano varies and is not always on St. Joseph's Day.

Ky's Troops Fire On Hue Marchers

By GEORGE McARTHUR

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Premier Nguyen Cao Ky pushed his radical Buddhists opponents farther into a corner today by sending his paratroopers into Hue and slapping a 9 p.m. nightly curfew on Saigon.

The paratroopers opened fire on dissident Vietnamese soldiers who tried to stage a march with Buddhist banners in the northern city. The marchers fled after a heavy burst of fire, and some blood on the street indicated casualties.

Apparently confident of crushing the Buddhist rebellion, the junta moved firmly ahead against its opponents.

A story of U.S. Marine battlefield valor unfolded on a hillside 325 miles northeast of Saigon where 30 U.S. Marines held off 300 Viet Cong for five hours during the night.

When the Leathernecks ran out of ammunition, they fought on with bayonets and finally rocks until Marine helicopters, planes and reinforcements helped drive the Communists off. A U.S. spokesman said all but two of the Marines were killed or wounded, but the platoon killed 32 of the attackers.

U.S. jets continued heavy attacks on North Viet Nam, flying 66 missions during which they dodged nine Soviet-made surface-to-air missiles. Two planes were lost to conventional groundfire, bringing the number of American planes shot down over the Communist north to 265. One of the pilots was rescued by helicopter.

Ky's 500 paratroopers rolled into Hue at dawn to a chorus of jeering, drum-beating Buddhists, but they quickly hauled Buddhist altars off main streets and took positions at the radio station and one of the bridges across the Perfume River.

The soldiers fired a few tear-gas canisters and shots into the air. But with the help of 600 combat policemen sent in by Ky last week, they carried off the operation without any concerted resistance from the armed Buddhist youths and dissident troops who have kept the city of 160,000 in open rebellion for weeks.

Thousands of homemade altars still remained in the streets at dusk. However, Ky's forces seemed to be in control of key points and most of the populace continued about its routine activities.

Saigon's military governor declared the 9 p.m. to 4 a.m. curfew until further notice because, he charged, the Viet Cong were preparing to exploit the Buddhist agitation with "large-scale subversion." The curfew was imposed "to protect the people's lives and property and maintain security," he said.

VICENTE ROJO DIES

MADRID, Spain (AP)—Vicente Rojo, chief of the Republican army staff during the Spanish civil war from 1936 to 1939, died Wednesday in Madrid at age 71. He went into exile after the war but, and was allowed, to return to Spain from Bolivia in 1957.

Liquor Ration Reduced For Americans In Viet

By BOB HORTON

WASHINGTON (AP)—The liquor ration for American military and civilian personnel in Viet Nam has been cut by more than one-half.

Effective last month, the amount of alcoholic beverages which may be bought in package retail outlets was reduced from six fifths per man per month, with no limit on wines, to three fifths per man including wine.

The Pentagon said the cut-back, ordered by the command in Viet Nam, is intended to curb black market sales and "further reduce pressures on logistical and security systems."

A spokesman supplied figures which showed that with more men in Viet Nam, consumption of alcoholic beverages has increased sharply.

KENNEDY FINDS AFRICANS FEEL FRIENDLY TO U.S.

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP)

Sen. Robert F. Kennedy wound up his 12-day tour of four African countries today and said he had been impressed by the "great fund of friendship for America among the people of all these countries."

The New York Democrat and his wife flew to Athens.

Kennedy met with government leaders in Tanzania, Kenya and Ethiopia but the white government of South Africa gave him the cold shoulder. He skirted South African officials by criticizing the country's apartheid policy of racial segregation in talks to university students and by shaking every black hand in sight.

"I believe that hate and bigotry will end in South Africa one day and that your children will have a better opportunity than you have today," he told a crowd in the African township of Soweto near Johannesburg.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP)—Rolland M. Heskett, a founder of the Montana-Dakota Utilities Co., died Wednesday. He was 95.

Urges Rusk, Chen Meet Face-to-Face

NEW YORK (AP)

Sen. Mike Mansfield proposed today a face-to-face meeting between Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Red China's Foreign Minister Chen Yi to discuss a peaceful settlement of the Viet Nam war.

The Senate Democratic leader said in a speech prepared for Yeshiva University graduates that the war threatens to become in the end a U.S.-Chinese conflict, just as in Korea.

"What is needed most, at this time and in the light of that danger, is an initiative for a direct contact between the Peking government and our own government on the problem of peace in Viet Nam and Southeast Asia," Mansfield said.

"This problem is of such transcendent importance," he added, "that it is a fit question for face-to-face discussion between China and the United States at the highest practicable level."

"Our secretary of state, Dean Rusk, confronted the Chinese foreign minister, Chen Yi, across the conference table at Geneva in 1961-62. It may be that a similar meeting now would be useful in this critical situation."

He said such a conference could be confined to the two nations, or "it could include the nations of the Southeast Asian mainland since they all lie in the swathe of the war's spreading devastation."

Mansfield said he does not regard the membership nor the mechanics of the conference as important.

"History will not be gentle with those who pursue the shadow and evade the substance of peace," he said.

NAMES POSTMASTERS

WASHINGTON (AP)

President Johnson sent six nominations for Illinois postmasters to the Senate Wednesday.

The Illinois nominations are H. Fred Holloway of Benton, Sterling A. Mayfield of Caseyville, Edward M. Neumann of Delavan, Raymond Mooney of Dix, Chester A. Haffner Jr. of Harvard and William F. Dhoni of South Beloit.

Leasing Tax Ban Dissolved

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The Illinois Supreme Court today dissolved an injunction in Cook County Circuit Court which prevented state collection of a 1965 leasing tax expected to bring in $13 million annually.

The action also freed an estimated $2 million which the state Revenue Department had collected but not disbursed to the general revenue fund.

Enforcement of the tax was tied up by an injunction obtained by International Business Machines and Service Bureau corporations of New York.

Graham Crusade Will Include Pop Singer

By ANTHONY C. PEARCE

LONDON (AP)—British pop idol Cliff Richard, minus the backing of beat guitars, was on the program to sing tonight for Evangelists: Billy Graham's Greater London crusade.

Teen-age fans are expected to show up in force.

But the screams they normally reserve for the 25-year-old star will be stilled as he sings the simple gospel song "It's No Secret."

Dr. Henry K. Beecher, director of Harvard's anesthesia laboratory at Massachusetts General Hospital and chairman of a faculty committee studying ethics in human experiments, makes the charges in the New England Journal of Medicine.

Journal editors who reviewed the article in the latest issue certified the 22 examples given as accurate and correctly described. They said 28 others he submitted were not included for reasons of space.

"It is evident that in many of the examples presented, the investigators have risked the health or life of their subjects," Dr. Beecher wrote.

His examples, he said, are from leading medical schools, university hospitals, private hospitals, governmental military departments (Army, Navy, Air Force), governmental institutes, Veterans Administration hospitals and industry.

It is evident, Dr. Beecher wrote, "that unethical or questionably ethical procedures are not uncommon."

The decision reversed the Circuit Court in Rockford which authorized a $5 million bond issue for reconstruction of the present courthouse.

Winnebago County voters had rejected the bond issue in a 1964 referendum.

Counties covered by the law included Winnebago, DuPage, Lake, St. Clair, Madison and Kane.

The high court said the law was invalid because it excluded too many counties.

The opinion rejected arguments that downstate counties of 200,000 to one million population required courthouse expansion because of their growth.

Clark ruled against USE OF FUEL FUNDS.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—A municipality cannot use motor fuel tax funds to finance a feasibility study for a toll bridge, Atty. Gen. William G. Clark held Wednesday.

Clark's opinion answered a query from the state public works director, Francis Lorenz, who told Clark the City of Alton seeks to use motor fuel tax funds for a feasibility study for a new toll bridge across the Mississippi River.

REV. EGAN DIES

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Rev. James M. Egan, director of the Graduate School of Sacred Theology at St. Mary's College in South Bend, Ind., died Wednesday in Providence, where he was in retreat at Providence College. He was 57. Father Egan, a native of New York City, was a member of the Dominican order.

The all-day meeting of delegates from every state also produced new and promising proposals for dealing with these potential difficulties, Gardner reported. He said the government has pledged to follow up the suggestions and to "do everything we can to sustain and nourish our great voluntary hospital system."

Daley's power and prestige were considerably bolstered by the 2 to 1 victory of his $195 million bond issues for city improvements. Similar bond issues, totaling much less, were defeated in 1962 and Daley put everything he had behind the latest requests.

Daley's organization also pushed to victory two veteran congressmen fighting off attempts by young challengers to retire them.

Barratt O'Hara, 84, the oldest member of the U.S. House, eked out a victory in the 2nd District over maverick Democrat Abner Mikva, a state representative known for his independence from party machine.

William L. Dawson 80, one of the most politically powerful Negroes in the country, gained renomination in the South Side's 1st District over Fred Hubbard, 36, a social worker, and Ronald L. Williams, a lawyer. Both Hubbard and Williams are Negroes.

Daley said President Johnson had telephoned to congratulate him on the bond victory.

Saloons in the Northwest Side neighborhood remained closed at police request, but other shops were told they could reopen without fear of further looting or vandalism.

Street sweepers have cleared away most of the shards of smashed windows and the debris of rocks and pop bottles which had been hurled at police.

More than 300 policemen patrolled the area Wednesday night.

The pleas of leaders in the Puerto Rican community, police and city officials for calm and peace were echoed in a message from a political leader in the island commonwealth itself.

Arcilio Alvarado, speaker of the Puerto Rican House, said in a letter to Chicago mayor Richard J. Daley:

"I sincerely urge... that you meet with the Puerto Rican leaders who have been working together with local police authorities and have devised plans and taken steps to prevent immediately any further incidents."

Daley met privately with community leaders Tuesday.

Judge Saul Epton of Circuit Court, who will hear many of the cases against the 112 persons arrested in the disorders, said in a statement:

"Regardless of zeal for improved social conditions, there can be no excuse for violence. Rather than working toward goals it destroys goals. I urge every segment of the neighborhood to use their faculties of reason and judgement."

He said he would deal harshly with those convicted of inciting riots or other related offenses.

Daley Puts Demo Machine In Gear For Douglas

CHICAGO (AP)

Mayor Richard J. Daley, basking in the stunning 2 to 1 voter approval of his bond issues, swung the power of his Democratic machine to help veteran Sen. Paul H. Douglas knock down a bid to unseat him.

Republican Charles H. Percy, 46, handsome one-time "boy wonder" of the business world, garnered more than a half million votes to beat token opposition in Tuesday's Illinois primary.

Running without opposition, Douglas, 74, ran up three-quarters of a million votes in his quest for a fourth term. Percy professed no worry over Douglas' superior showing.

Daley's power and prestige were considerably bolstered by the 2 to 1 victory of his $195 million bond issues for city improvements. Similar bond issues, totaling much less, were defeated in 1962 and Daley put everything he had behind the latest requests.

12-Story-Tall Defense Rocket

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)

Eight satellites, including seven to speed secret military messages between Washington, Saigon and other strategic points, rode a mighty Titan 3 rocket today toward lofty outposts in space.

The 12-story-tall Titan—most powerful booster in the Defense Department arsenal—blasted off on its fourth test flight at 9 a.m. EST.

Six hours later, the satellites were scheduled to zip into random circular orbits 21,000 miles above the equator, forming a jam-proof communications network in the skies.

Eight minutes after blastoff, the triple-barreled booster's acrobatic last stage settled with its payload into an orbit ranging from 104 to 115 miles above the earth. The air force said a (Turn To Page 13)

Sues Chicago Housing Chief For $1 Million

CHICAGO (AP)

A Pennsylvania woman has filed a $1 million suit against Charles Swibel, chairman of the Chicago Housing Authority, and five others on charges of misappropriating funds from a multimillion-dollar trust fund.

Mrs. Myra G. Mervis of Pittsburgh contended in the U.S. District Court suit filed Wednesday that the six persons used altered bookkeeping entries to transfer cash and other assets from the trust fund set up by her mother, Mrs. Bessie Greenbaum, in 1937.

The fund was placed under the trusteeship of Isaac Marks of Marks and Co., a Chicago real estate fund, the suit said. Swibel was named successor trustee in 1953 and took over when Marks died in 1954, the suit said.

At that time, the suit said, the trust was valued at $1.35 million. When checked by bookkeepers in April, only $170,793 in accounts receivable and $54,428 in mortgages remained, Mrs. Mervis charged.

The suit said a report filed by the company showed the trust had total assets of nearly $900,000.

First Step To Jail

Coed Becomes Editor Of College Paper

EUGENE, Ore. (AP)

Annette Buchanan, 20, a coed at the University of Oregon, was appointed managing editor of her college newspaper on May 1. Unknown to her, that was the first step along a path that could take her to jail.

Three weeks later, she interviewed seven students about smoking marijuana. The story was published in the newspaper, the Oregon Daily Emerald, on May 24.

By coincidence, that was the same day Dist. Atty. William Frye of Lane County lost the 4th District Democratic congressional nomination to Charles O. Porter in the Oregon primary election.

Frye read the story, and obtained subpoenas summoning Miss Buchanan and three other student editors before a grand jury June 3. The other three were quickly dismissed when they said they did not know the names of the students quoted in the story.

When Miss Buchanan declined to reveal the identity of the five students whose names she withheld names of their news sources, Frye took her before Circuit Court Judge Edward Leavy and asked that she be ordered to divulge her sources. Leavy complied.
